OVERFLOWING CUPFUL OF HAPPINESS

Broken water mains may mean a headache to water district workers, but Nancy Ardito, 3, Steven Ardito, 5, and Debbie Trout, 5, were happy today over the results of a broken 18-inch line at Domingo and Napa Streets in Fairfax last night. The break, caused by a worn out seam, leaked water all night, collapsing part of the sidewalk and leaving a gaping hole this morning. Another photo, page 4. (Independent-Journal photo)

White House Asks Nikita Not To Explode Big Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House has asked the Soviet Union to reconsider its decision to explode a 50-megaton nuclear bomb, charging that the test would be unnecessary and could "only serve some unconfessed political purpose."

It said the United States had the materials and know-how to produce bombs in the 50-100 megaton range—and higher—but that such weapons are not essential to U.S. military needs and that full-scale tests are not necessary to develop them.

A 130-word statement was handed to newsmen last night by press secretary Pierre Salinger, who said it should be attributed to the White House and not to President John F. Kennedy personally.

The statement was the only official U.S. comment so far on Premier Nikita Khrushchev's announcement yesterday that the Soviet Union would explode a 50-megaton weapon at the end of this month. A 50-megaton blast is equivalent to the force of 50 million tons of TNT and about 2,500 times more powerful than the U.S. atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima.

U.S. strategists hoped the White House statement, citing the lack of military purpose for such a test, would rally world opinion against the Kremlin.

From a diplomatic standpoint, Khrushchev's Moscow speech was seen as combining the carrot on a stick technique with the flick of a whip—mixing the lure of negotiations over Berlin while brandishing a mammoth nuclear threat.

A task force of State Department experts — including the U.S. ambassador to Moscow, Llewellyn E. Thompson—gathered to scrutinize all avail-

College Land Deal Probe Still Open

But Grand Jury Not Critical Of Trustees

Trustees of Marin Junior College District cannot be criticized for holding secret sessions to buy land, because the trustees were acting on the advice of County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, the Marin County Grand Jury decided yesterday.

However, the case is not yet closed, Acting Jury Foreman Harry H. Heifetz announced. He said the grand jurors will meet again at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday to look into this bigger question:

Is this process of acquiring land through closed sessions in the best interest of the people of Marin County?

In the absence of County Counsel McGuire, his assistant, Douglas Maloney explained the closed sessions in this way: In any matters like land acquisition, where there is any possibility of future litigation, the county counsel feels the college board may meet in closed sessions.

If "possible future litigation" can be used as a reason for holding secret meetings, then wouldn't almost any topic be subject to secret discussion?

Acting Jury Foreman Heifetz, acknowledging this danger, said: "That's why we say that the case is not yet closed. If we feel that this process (acquiring land through closed sessions) is improper, we will certainly condemn."

The grand jury's probe involves the purchase of property at 143 Kent Avenue for $27,500. The action to buy the land came last Thursday night, without prior public discussion. The decision to buy had been made in secret sessions beforehand.

The college trustees had agreed on the $27,500 price for the 10,000 square foot lot on the basis of one appraisal made on Sept. 26 by San Rafael appraisers Neil Brodsgar and J. M. Hackney Jr. Brodsgar and Hackney appraised the property at $26,500.

Just 20 months ago, in December of 1959, the property

Deputy Slayer Goes To Death At Quentin

David Allen Combes was executed in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber today for the murder of deputy sheriff Bryce Patten, 27, in Ventura last year.

Combes, 32, who had been denied clemency by Gov. Edmund G. Brown last week, walked calmly toward the death chamber accompanied by a Catholic priest and a Protestant minister.

As 25 witnesses watched, the tall, slender convict quietly entered the chamber at 10 a.m. The lethal pellets were dropped three minutes later and a doctor pronounced him dead at 10:11 a.m.

Combes, whose turbulent life of crime began as a teenager, spent the last evening before his death chatting with prison guards, according to Assistant Warden Dale B. Frady.

This morning he ate a hearty breakfast and asked the two chaplains to accompany him to the gas chamber, Frady said.

FLOOD RESOLUTION PASSED BY BOARD

Action May Open Way To Control Project For Corte Madera Creek

A resolution unanimously passed by Marin County supervisors yesterday was expected to open the way to a $6,950,000 federal flood control project for Corte Madera Creek.

Cost to the affected area was estimated at $26,000 yearly for maintenance, against an annual benefit estimated by federal engineers at $423,000.

Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell estimated a tax rate of three and one-half cents per $100 for the Ross Valley-Corte Madera area.

The resolution, suggested in a letter from County Counsel E. Warren McGuire, expressed Marin County intention to cooperate to the extent required by federal law.

The McGuire letter, reviewing information from federal authorities and accompanied by a letter from the Army Corps of Engineers, mentioned that $1,180,000 of the estimated total cost has been allocated to acquisition of rights of ways.

The letter from the engineers specifically requested yesterday's resolution of intent. McGuire wrote that he understood the proposition is at a stage where it will be submitted to Congress next year, with construction probable in 1964.

Mitchell's financial calculation took in as affected areas the cities of Corte Madera, Fairfax, Larkspur, Ross and San Anselmo, the Sleepy Hollow Fire District, the Greenbrae and Kentfield Lighting Districts, and Mira Monte and Oak Manor.

"If the cities don't agree to give rights of way, what happens?" asked Supervisor Walter R. Castro.

"We condemn," replied Chairman William D. Fusselman. "We can go in and acquire right of way."

Brigham expressed belief the project is "a fine deal for the cities and they will go along."

Castro also wanted to know if the present board wouldn't be exceeding its powers in binding future boards to a given course, but he was told that a policy declaration of this sort is legally acceptable.

Supervisor William Gnoss moved and George Ludy seconded the resolution which all supported.

Violent Quake Strikes In South Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — A violent earthquake hit southern Chile today.

The center was believed to be Concepcion, site of the last great Chilean earthquake which struck in May, 1960.

Today's temblor cut telephone and telegraph communications with the areas, so no immediate indication of possible deaths, injuries or damage were available.

Federal police sources said the cities affected by the latest earth upheaval included Curico, Talca, Chillan, Concepcion, Temuco and Valdiva.

The May 1960 disaster hit Chile hard, and had fatal aftereffects in the Hawaiian and Japanese islands. The quakes also battered the western U.S. coasts, and struck Okinawa.

Burglars Hit Novato Stores For Thousands

Several thousand dollars' worth of merchandise was stolen from two Novato stores last night in what Novato police described as "professional" burglaries.

At the Firestone Store at 7374 Redwood Highway, manager William Pinto reported at least eight television sets, eight radios, three lamps and other giftware, plus auto accessories were taken. He estimated the loss was at least $3,000.

The Modern Eve Shop at 1417 Grant Avenue also was burglarized.

Mrs. Helen E. Gray, owner, could not make an estimate of the amount of merchandise taken, but said, "from the looks of the store this morning, it was considerable."

Kennedy To Make Oklahoma Trip

WASHINGTON (AP) — President John F. Kennedy will make a flying visit to Oklahoma Oct. 29 to take part in a ribbon-cutting ceremony opening the Ouachita National Forest road at Big Cedar.

After the ceremony Kennedy will fly by helicopter to Poteau to spend the night at the ranch of Sen. Robert S. Kerr. He will return to Washington the following morning.

The White House announced the trip formally today.

Injured Man Found By Car —No Driver

A Walnut Creek man's car was found wrecked on the San Rafael overpass last midnight, with an injured man who claimed to be only a passenger lying in the road, and the owner today declined to say whether he was at the wheel.

A Volkswagen registered to Henry V. Boyer of Walnut Creek slammed into a freeway guard rail shortly before midnight. Thrown clear of the wreck was Augie Giretto of Oakland. He was found lying in the north lane. The car, southbound, had hit the west guard rail, then slithered across the highway to hit the east rail.

Beside the car, Highway Patrolmen Richard de Marco and Charles Heart found a wallet with Boyer's identification, containing $25.

NOT DRIVING

Giretto told officers he had not been driving, but refused to say who was driving. He was reported in good condition today at Peralta Hospital in Oakland.

Boyer reportedly had not arrived home in Walnut Creek by 1:30 p.m., the highway patrol said. An officer was to look for him there today.

At noon, Boyer answered the telephone when called at home by the Independent-Journal. Asked whether he had been in the car when it was wrecked, he replied: "I won't say anything about that."

BOY HURT

An eight-year-old boy was seriously injured in South San Rafael yesterday when he coasted down a hill in front of a car which knocked him down.

Kendal Kessler of 144 Auburn Street, son of Greyhound bus driver Walter R. Kessler, suffered a broken left arm, broken left leg and internal injuries at 3:15 p.m. yesterday. He was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Thomas Marin Parsons of 329 Auburn Street told the High-

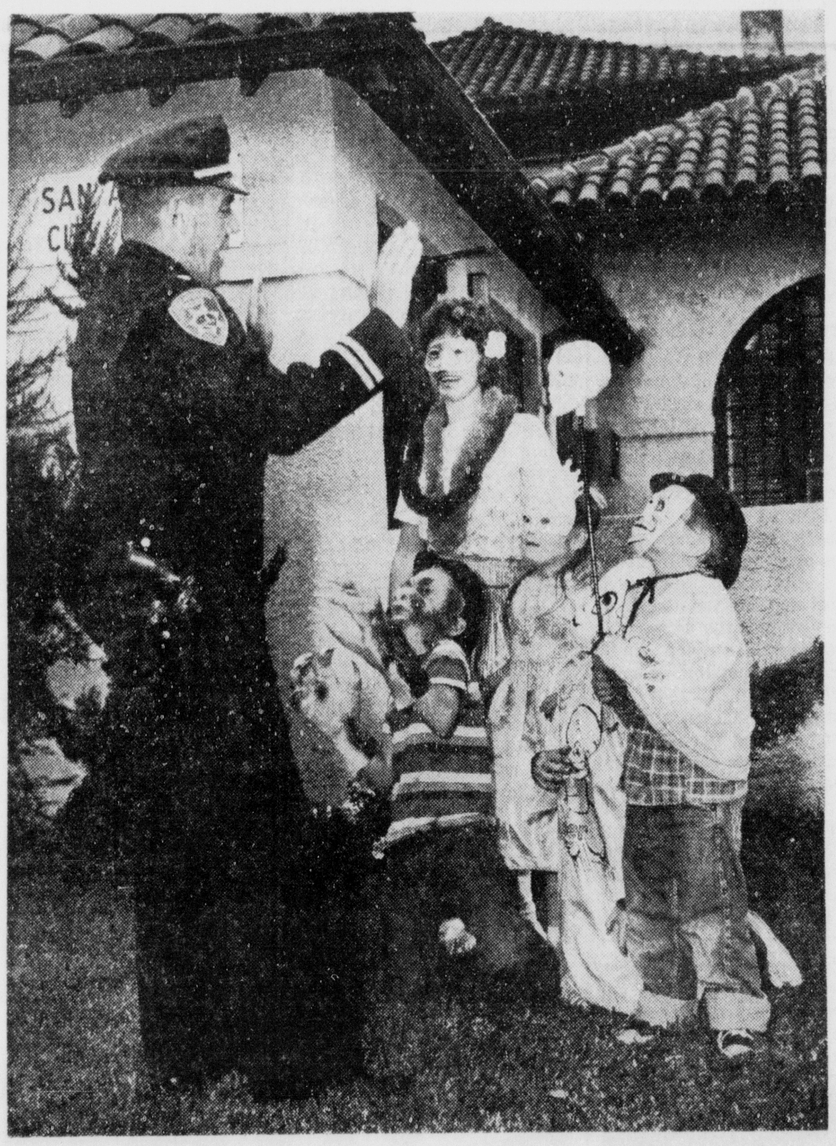
Huge Explosion Rocks Chicago's West Side

CHICAGO (AP)—A comestics chemical explosion leveled a one-story blending building, rocked the West Side for miles and injured an estimated 200 persons today.

There were no fatalities. A loss-control engineer declared the disaster plan of the Helene Curtis Industries worked effectively and all 800 persons working in seven buildings were evacuated within five minutes.



TESTING FOR FRIGHT VALUE—Connie Conklin and Ricky, Bail and Johnny Mann are shown trying out their scary-best costumes on San Anselmo Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani — with satisfactory results. The youngsters will go into high gear with their costumes Saturday morning in the pre-Halloween parade which will climax San Anselmo Bargain Days sale tomorrow, Friday and Saturday. Bargain Days All Set In San Anselmo

Bargains and a pre-Halloween parade will highlight San Anselmo Bargain Days tomorrow Friday and Saturday.

Almost 30 stores in the Hub city will take part in the three-day sale, with customers receiving prizes being offered by all participating stores.

To be eligible for prizes, customers need only clip the coupons in today's special section of the Independent-Journal and deposit them in the stores named.

A drawing will be held on Oct. 23 and winners of prizes notified. Winners need not be present to win.

A pre-Halloween parade with youngsters in costumes will form at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Tamalpais and San Anselmo Avenues and march to the city hall where their costumes will be judged.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Auto Parley

DETROIT (UPI) — Chrysler Corp. and United Auto Workers negotiators concentrated today on non-money matters, reversing the order of new contract bargaining in an attempt to avert strike action.

The company and the union decided to tackle national non-economic matters and local plant-level disputes before turning to the economic area. Recent strikes at General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. were called over non-economic issues.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, said five subcommittees have been formed to bargain on seniority, salaried workers represented by the union, production standards, problems of the work week and skilled trades."

Lyndon Visits Sam

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson visited with House Speaker Sam Rayburn for an hour yesterday and said he is "waging a brave battle" with cancer.

Previous visits to the speaker's bedside had been much shorter.

"It is sad to see him so sick," Johnson said when he left.

Doctors at Baylor University Medical Center indicated, however, that Rayburn is feeling a bit better, and apparently is getting stronger. He felt well enough yesterday to sit up in bed and ate good meals.

Fallout Protection

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Want to escape long-range fallout from a nuclear bomb? Go live in a desert.

That's the answer Nobel prize-winning chemist Willard F. Libby gave at a news conference Tuesday.

Libby, appearing at the National Civil Defense Council Convention, explained:

Fallout is carried by rain. There's little rain in the desert. And therefore such an area would be relatively free of worldwide fallout.

War On Obscenity

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department said today its quiet campaign against obscenity in the mails has shown an increase in arrests and convictions so far this year.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day said the Postal Inspection Service had arrested 98 persons on charges of violating postal obscenity statutes through the third quarter of 1961, which ended Sept. 15.

This represents a 21 per cent increase over the same period last year, he said.

Cohen Due In L.A.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Mickey Cohen first man ever to leave Alcatraz Prison on bail, was to return to his Los Angeles home today.

The 47-year-old ex-hoodlum stepped off the prison launch at 12:30 p.m. yesterday and gave his brother, Harry, and his attorney big bear hugs.

"I feel confident I'll win my appeal," Cohen said.

Berlin Test

BERLIN (AP) — Nearly half West Berlin's 6,500-man U.S. garrison rolled out today for a three-day test of combat readiness.

Tanks rumbled through the streets at daybreak, followed by armored personnel carriers packed with steel-helmeted troops.

The columns wheeled out of their barracks and headed for the Grunewald Forest, in the American sector southwest of the city proper, where the mock battles will be staged.

Convention Ends

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The 87th annual convention of the Amerisan Bankers Assn. ended in San Francisco today with addresses by two prominent men — a banker and Hollywood actor.

Roy L. Reierson, senior vice president of Bankers Trust Co. of New York, spoke on economics and the financial outlook.

Actor Ronald Reagan concluded the four-day convention with a speech on losing freedom by installments.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillion told the convention yesterday he is optimistic about the future of the U.S. economy, despite concern over an "uncomfortably large" federal deficit of more than 6.75 billion dollars this year.

Flu Shots Urged

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The surgeon general of the United States urges immediate anti-influenza shots for persons over 65, expectant mothers and persons suffering from heart disease and other chronic ailments. The official, Luther L. Terrf, repeated Tuesday a prediction that an outbreak of influenza will occur in the United States this fall and winter.

Taylor In S. Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) —Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, President John F. Kennedy's special military adviser, arrived today to size up the Communist threat to South Viet Nam and expressed the Kennedy administration's "utmost confidence" in the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

A few hours after Taylor's arrival Diem proclaimed a state of emergency throughout the country in an apparent move to step up the fight against the Communist-led Viet Cong rebels.

Saturn Shot Delayed

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The maiden flight of America's first Saturn "moon rocket" has been postponed for at least one more week to give it a better chance for success.

The postponement called by the Federal Space Agency eliminated the chance for a unique space-age doubleheader within the next few days. Sources also said the other half of the twinbill, the firing of a Ranger satellite deep into space, faces a possible delay of a few days.

Ranger and Saturn are U.S. programs aimed at conquering the nation's most elusive target in space, the moon. Scientists plan to fire Ranger payloads directly at the moon starting next year, and will use advanced Saturns to send astronauts on a lunar round-trip later this decade.

Only United Nations representatives, church leaders and diplomats can cross freely between the Jordan and Israel sectors of Jerusalem.

Grain Deal With Belgrade Is Called Off

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has shelved at least temporarily a request by Yugoslavia to buy 500,000 tons of surplus American wheat.

State Department officials indicated this was an outgrowth of the displeasures of President John F. Kennedy toward the Tito government because of pro-Soviet positions Yugolavia took at the recent Belgrade conference of 25 unaligned nations.

Officials said U.S. Ambassador George S. Kennan had outlined the policy of the U.S. government toward Yugoslavia in a meeting last week with Yugoslav Vice President Mijalko Todorovic in Belgrade.

The policy in effect continues all present commitments by the United States for economic assistance but halts consideration of new programs.

Kennan gave this answer after having been asked orally by Todorovic to clarify U.S. policy toward Yugoslavia, officials said.

Belgrade has been asking Washington to consider the new request for the 500,000 tons of wheat, but the controversy in the United States over the sale of surplus Sabre jet planes has cooled American officials toward the request. There already had been surprise at the position President Tito took at the Belgrade conference while professing to be unaligned.

Washington agreed earlier this year to sell Belgrade 60 million dollars worth of cotton, vegetable oil and surplus wheat. The 400,000 tons of wheat involved totaled about 28 million dollars. This agreement is now being carried out.

Although no official price tag was announced, the 500,000 tons of wheat requested later apparently would have amounted to 35 million dollars, including transportation costs.

The United States also agreed last January to advance a 100-million dollar credit to Yugoslavia for currency reforms.

The United States has given Yugoslavia a total of 2.2 billion dollars in economic and military assistance since the end of World War II.

OLD 'NEW' LINE

Nikita Says West's Downfall Inevitable

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev told the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress today that the downfall of imperialism and the triumph of socialism on a world scale are inevitable.

The Soviet premier took the rostrum at the second session of the congress to discuss the massive new party program—its first since 1919—which the Kremlin claims will make communism supreme and irresistibly attractive to the rest of the world by 1980.

Khrushchev told the more than 4,000 delegates in the new Kremlin Palace of Congresses that the experience of a large group of countries had confirmed that the socialist system inevitably replaces the capitalist system.

Imperialism — the standard Communist term for Western capitalism—has irretrievably lost its hold on the bulk of the world's peoples, he declared, asserting that socialism is the main avenue along which mankind advances.

In the Soviet Union, he continued, socialism has been transplated into reality and this 22nd party congress will go down in history as the congress of the builders of communism.

The premier said the Soviet people's living conditions have been radically altered as a result of these "colossal transformations"—that unemployment had been wiped out long ago, workers' real wages have risen 480 per cent, and the real incomes of the peasants have risen more than 500 per cent.

Khrushchev listed what he called three historical factors of the 20th century.

"The formation of the world socialist system is the principal result of the progressive development of society in our epoch," he declared.

"The crumbling of the colonial system is the second in historical significance among the results of world development.

"The third result of world development is an acute all-around weakening of capitalism and a fresh sharpening of its general crisis."

The party program before the congress was published July 30, and many Westerners immediately called it a pie-in-the-sky theme.

With a target date of 1980, it calls for free rent, medical care, education, utilities, local transportation and factory lunches by then.

It also pledges to overtake the United States in per capita production, to maintain peaceful co-existence between socialist and capitalist states, to support independence movements throughout the world, and to keep Soviet military forces at top efficiency.

"American capitalism has passed its prime and is declining," Khrushchev declared, asserting that the "American financial oligarchy" does not have the strength or the means to implement its claims "to the role of savior of capitalism and its claims to world domination."

National Food Cache Urged In Case Of War

WASHINGTON (AP) — A California scientist suggests the United States build up a national food cache so that food enough for two years would be available within easy walking distance of every American in the event of war.

Dr. Perry R. Stout of the University of California, speaking yesterday to a component institute of the National Research Council, said a 15-billion-dollar emergency food supply should be widely distributed.

Stout said: "It will not be too much to follow the Biblical admonishment that the seven lean years will follow the good. As with the ancient Egyptians, let us take 20 per cent of each year's crop and store it."

He added: "In this age of nuclear weapons, the U.S. is perhaps the most vulnerable of the large nations because of the dependence of her agricultural complex upon industrially supplied fertilizers, fuels and machinery.

"Consequently, in case of large-scale nuclear combat with primary targets being our concentrated industrial establishments, agriculture, even though highly dispersed, will become paralyzed immediately."

When the British captured Washington during the War of 1812, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights were sewn in linen bags and hidden on a farm in Virginia.

Governor Tells Of Plans For State Civil Defense

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown today made his first official announcement of a reorganization of California's civil defense administration with the national guard given major responsibility for field operations in the event of nuclear attack.

The governor, speaking to the 10th annual conference of the U.S. Civil Defense Council, said the reorganization has been recommended by his new cabinet. This is the plan:

1. Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford Crittenden, who also serves in Brown's cabinet as public safety administrator, will be the governor's "direct personal representative in charge of civil defense."

2. The "key responsibility for disaster operations will be placed in the California National Guard," which can only be activated by the governor.

3. The California Disaster Office, previously the state's major civil defense arm, will "continue to have the primary responsibility to develop the plans and programs to protect our people." Brown promised there will "be no dilution of the functions of the disaster office."

REPAIRING BROKEN FAIRFAX WATER MAIN

The sizeable pool was created last night when an 18-inch water main broke at Domingo and Napa Streets in Fairfax. Shown is a Marin Municipal Water District crew, sent out to repair the damage this morning. According to David Murphy, MMWD administrative assistant, no other property damage was suffered and the water supply was not affected by the break. Another photo, page 1. (Independent-Journal photo) able textual matter to weigh the significance of what Khrushchev said, and what he didn't say.

Salinger said earlier that the President would "have absolutely no comment" on Khrushchev's six-hour and 20-minute oration before the Communist party congress.

A few hours later Salinger handed out the statement which said: "It is reported that the Soviet Union plans to explode a giant nuclear bomb—the equivalent of 50 million tons of TNT.

"We call upon the Soviet Union to reconsider this decision, if in fact it has been made. We know about high-yield weapons. Since 1957 the United States has had the technical know-how and the materials to produce bombs in the 50-100 megaton range and higher. But we also know that such weapons are not essential to our military needs. Furthermore, full-scale tests are not necessary to develop 50-megaton bombs.

"We believe the peoples throughout the world will join us in asking the Soviet Union not to proceed with a test which can serve no legitimate purpose and which adds a mass of additional radioactive fallout to that which has been unleashed in recent weeks."

An Atomic Energy Commission spokesman, asked how much fallout would be created by a 50-megaton blast, replied there was no way to make an accurate appraisal since such a device had never been tested. He said any estimate would be only a guess, for it is unknown how much potential fallout material might be contained in the bomb.

Vehicle Building Low Offer Told

A $15,840 bid by Paradise Engineering Construction, Inc., of Corte Madera was lowest of five offers opened in Sacramento yesterday on landscaping of the new State Motor Vehicle Department building in San Francisco. Award is expected after routine review.

The work will include grassed areas around a big parking lot, chain link fence, trees and other shrubbery and a sprinkler irrigation system. These items were planned after the San Francisco mayor and planning commission complained to Sacramento that the whole layout would be bare and ugly otherwise.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks displayed moderate strength today with domestic oils taking over the upside leadership in the final hour. Volume ran well above yesterday's pace, with the high speed ticker late at the final bell.

Oils climbed, apparently spurred by possible mergers and takeovers, and a recent shipping strike which resulted in a boost in production to avoid a shortage of heating oil this fall.

Bank Of America Declares Dividend Of 5 Per Cent

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Bank of America has declared a 5 per cent stock dividend in addition to its regular quarterly dividend.

The firm also offered rights to new stock at a preferred price to shareholders. The action was voted yesterday during a meeting of the board of directors and is subject to approval by the bank's shareholders at a special meeting Nov. 21.

The regular quarterly dividend of 50 cents a share was voted payable Nov. 30 to holders of record Nov. 3.

Shareholders at the Nov. 21 meeting will vote on payment of a stock dividend of 1,280,000 shares on or about Dec. 8, to shareholders of record Nov. 3, at the rate of one full share for each 20 owned.

Injured In Fall

Eric Rickel, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Rickel of 155 Cobblestone Drive in San Rafael, cut his left wrist in a fall from his backyard trampoline Monday. He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital.

St. Mary's Freshman

Michael F. Quinn of San Anselmo is enrolled as a freshman at Saint Mary's College, according to Brother U. Cassian, F.S.C., dean. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Quinn of 234 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo.

way Patrol he was driving east on Auburn Street just west of Gilbert Street when the bicycle suddenly went into his path from a private driveway. The driver was exonerated.

Thomas David Cox, 67, was treated for injuries to his left hand, ribs and elbow at San Rafael General Hospital after he was knocked down by an automobile at Third and B Streets in San Rafael yesterday.

Cox was struck by a car driven by James Edwin Gilchrist, 52, of Green Hill Farm on West Fifth Avenue, San Rafael. Gilchrist was cited for violating the pedestrian right of way.

Three-year-old Andy Morse of 3 Highland Avenue, San Rafael, was treated today at San Rafael General Hospital for a cut forehead and lip after his father's car and another met head-on at Irwin and Mission avenues.

His father, Dr. Robert Morse, was westbound on Mission at about 8 a.m. John Diepeveen of 2287 Fifth Avenue, was making a left turn onto Irwin from Mission. Andy struck the windshield when the two cars collided, police said.

A four-car collision of minor nature tied up southbound traffic on Highway 101 from the Black Point intersection about two miles back into Novato from 7:05 a. m. to about 8 a.m. today.

The Highway Patrol said two cars had stopped for the light and two others ran into them from behind. Mass traffic congestion built up rapidly and continued for some time after the highway was clear.

19-Year-Old Blonde Is Suing Magazine

TUSTIN (AP) — Dianne Baker, a pretty, 19-year-old blonde, is suing Playboy Magazine, publisher Hugh M. Hefner and six others for one million dollars.

She charged, in a complaint filed yesterday, that the magazine used her bathing suit picture without permission, that the picture was run along with those of nude females and that the accompanying story implied she allowed herself to be picked by tourists, allowing them to "tarry with her overnight."

had been purchased for $16,500 by Margaretta K. Zugsmith and Marie A. Carli.

In the 1961-62 tax rolls, the property's market value is listed as $16,500, of which $8,000 is for the land and $8,500 for the house.

Brodsgar and Hackney, appraisers for the college district, set the $26,500 figure on basis that the property could be used to build a 10-unit apartment house. It is zoned for apartments.

The college has also purchased two other pieces of property for expansion of its Kentfield campus in accordance with a master plan the trustees approved last summer. Purchase of a third is being considered.

Discussion of the land acquisition has been at executive sessions held midway in regular open meetings of the board. The trustees have reconvened in regular session after the secret discussions.

Norman Bird, business manager of the college, said today the following land purchases have been made:

Property of Crown Development Corp. (Mosk Realty Co.) in Larkspur, immediately behind the Garden Spot Nursery, was purchased for $51,000. The 10.98-acre property is to be used for expanded physical education facilities for the college. "Acceptance of a grant of interest" in this property was voted by the college trustees at their meeting of Sept. 14.

At the same meeting, the board also voted "acceptance of a grant of interest" in 2.49 acres to the rear of the 143 Kent Avenue, purchased from Kent Woodlands Properties, Inc. Price paid for this was $38,000.

Purchase of a 10,-square foot lot, with a house on it, at 143 Kent Avenue from Mrs. Margaretta Zugsmith was authorized by the board at its meeting of Oct. 12.

The Zugsmith property will provide access to the property at the rear, where student housing is planned, Bird explained.

The board has discussed during its closed sessions the purchase of 12.98 acres of Coleman Estates properties which adjoins the Crown Development parcel in Larkspur. This also would be used for expanded athletic facilities.

Golf Club Burglary Suspect Jailed

George Wesley Daar, 23, of San Francisco, was booked into the Marin County Jail last night on burglary charges in connection with the Oct. 9 burglary of the Marin Golf and Country Club in Novato.

Daar was scheduled to appear in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Another suspect in the case, Henry E. Bush, 29, also of San Francisco, was being held by San Francisco police in a marijuana possession charge.

The two were arrested yesterday by San Francisco police on a tip that Bush was rolling his own cigarettes from tobacco in a match box and that he had recently acquired some neckties and sweaters with "Marin Golf and Country Club" on them.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Norma Pinther Dies At 66

Mrs. Norma H. Pinther, wife of San Francisco grain dealer Alfred Pinther, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness. She was 66.

Born in Oakland, Mrs. Pinther had resided for over 60 years in Marin County.

She had made her home at 625 College Avenue in Kentfield since 1937.

An active clubwoman, Mrs. Pinther was a member of the California Alpine Club, had worked with the San Rafael Chapter of the Red Cross during World War II, and was a member of numerous groups connected with Holy Innocents' Church in Corte Madera.

She is survived by her husband, Alfred; one daughter, Mrs. Dorris J. Campbell of Greenbrae; one sister, Clara Holroyd of San Anselmo; and two brothers, George Holroyd of Corte Madera and Richard Holroyd of Oakland.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at N. Gray and Co. in San Francisco. Contributions to the American Cancer Society are preferred by the family.

MARION BRISBIN

Mrs. Marion R. Brisbin, wife of Samuel R. Brisbin, San Rafael Pacific Gas and Electric Co. supervisor, died at her home yesterday after a heart attack.

Mrs. Brisbin had been under a doctor's care for a heart condition for five years.

In 1907, she had come to California from her native Nebraska.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Shirley M. Joffee of Madera; a son, Harvey L. Poole of Oakland; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Galvin of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Rose Norton of Washington, D.C.; four brothers, Harvey A. Kelley of Aurora, Ill.; Scott and Ossie Kelley of Kansas City, Mo., and Richard Kelley of Maywood, Ill. She is also survived by two grandsons.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary in San Rafael.

F. C. CHANNELL

Frederic C. Channell, 77, retired map maker for Union Oil Co. in Louisiana, died at his home at 40 Chanticleer Avenue, Larkspur, Monday after a long illness.

He had come to Larkspur 12 years ago following his retirement from business. He was a native of Georgia.

Channell was a life member of the Sulphur Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, in Sulphur, La.

He is survived by his wife, Ethel; a son, Navy Cmdr. Frederic C. Channell Jr., stationed in Washington, D.C., and two grandsons.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at the Chapel of the Hills Mortuary in San Anselmo. Interment will be at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery in San Rafael.

MOVE OVER, BROTHERS WRIGHT

Peter M. Bowers, 43, a Boeing Co. engineer of Seattle, sits in his home-made replica of the 1911 Wright Brothers' biplane in which he hopes to retrace the route of the first cross-country airplane flight made 50 years ago. The first cross-country flight was completed Nov. 5, 1911. Because of impending weather, Bowers may have to postpone his flight until next year. (AP Wirephoto)

Sen. Kuchel Opens Office In City

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel has opened a year around California office in the Federal Government's 100 McAllister Street Building in San Francisco.

Supplementing the office operating in Los Angeles from last spring, the San Francisco office will be directed by Irma Glasser, who has been with Senator Kuchel's Washington, D. C., staff more than four years.

The senior California senator's McAllister Street office will serve residents of Northern and Central California five days a week.

Formosans grow garden crops on every square inch of tillable land on the island — even in the spaces between railroad tracks.

Army Electronic Brain Made A Wrong Order

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Army officials admitted today that one of their electronic brains went haywire and ordered 7.4 million dollars worth of unneeded equipment sent to U.S. forces in Europe.

The orders were canceled when the Army discovered the mistake. But a few thousand dollars worth of equipment already had started to arrive overseas or was on the way.

The General Accounting Office, Congress' watchdog over government spending, disclosed the slip-up in a report to President John F. Kennedy and the Senate and House. Congressional committees will look into the episode.

The Army blamed the error on faulty rewiring of an electrical accounting machine control panel at its ordnance supply office in Orleans, France.

GAO auditors said that if the Army had checked its figures, the mistake would have been caught much more quickly. A number of figures were transposed and some included an extra digit.

Board Takes Quick Action On Pollution

Notification of Marin County's failure to comply with water pollution checks ordered by the Bay Area Regional Water Pollution Control Board caused the county board of supervisors yesterday to take hasty steps toward correction.

Two letters from the control board advised the supervisors that they had been guilty of violations of requirements for monitoring the Venetia Harbor and San Rafael Meadows Sewer Maintenance Districts. A 15-day time period for answer was given.

Discussion brought out that an unusually difficult type of monitoring is being required, and that the county has not so far been successful in employing workers to conduct the work of sampling.

This caused the board to reach two decisions:

1. Sanitation chief William L. Desmond of the county health department was told to use emergency methods and existing personnel to get the work done. Later he was voted special authorization to recruit.

2. County Counsel E. Warren McGuire was asked by resolution to ascertain if there is basis for appeal against the requirements as not reasonable.

The supervisors noted an Independent-Journal report yesterday that the control board had found both Marin County and the Gallinas Village Community Services District guilty of misdemeanor for failure to file monitoring reports. They called Desmond.

"I meant to locate someone to help but we couldn't handle it," said Desmond.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said he thought two men and a boat would be needed. Desmond said one man would serve, but he couldn't find the man since "trained technique and specific equipment are required." He finally declared that he needed a sanitarian trained in a school of public health.

Grand Jury Rips Supervisors For Mishandling Of Minutes

The Marin County Grand Jury administered a hearty whack to the county board of supervisors yesterday after catching them with their minutes down.

A letter from grand jury secretary Harry Heifetz charged "a most irregular method of handling the minutes of your meetings." Since before the board was reorganized last January, there have been no minutes approved and signed, his letter pointed out.

"By virtue of such failure," the letter went on, "all payments authorized in the minutes during the past nine months have neither been confirmed nor approved and could well be illegal. . . . It is impossible for the (grand jury) auditors to complete their audit."

But with what appears to have been at least three weeks warning, due to the grand jury auditor's queries, before the letter was prepared, the supervisors cleared everything at a fast pace.

"They're now up to date," said Chairman William D. Fusselman. Supervisor Walter R. Castro added that he had belatedly signed minutes for "the lost couple of meetings" under his chairmanship.

The letter complained that grand jury auditors had called the neglected minutes to attention of the supervisors some time back "and had not received satisfactory answer."

Fusselman pleaded "no laxity but an awkward set of circumstances."

"In all my years on the board I had never known it was mandatory that the minutes be read and completed for the benefit of the auditor," he said.

During the past week, Fusselman reported, he had gone over the months of accumulated minutes, finding what he termed "an orderly disorganization" and finally clearing the lot. In future, he said, two members will read all the minutes for each month, with this duty rotating periodically.

Fussellman named Supervisors Castro and William Gnoss to serve for the initial month.

"If there is any further difficulty we'll go back to the old horse and buggy days and read them each meeting," he promised.

As to possibility of illegality of payments with the minutes incomplete, Asst. Auditor Michael Mitchell said this was not the fact.

He said payments have been amply supported by tape-recorded votes and signed orders from the chairman. In any event the auditor has had special authorization for claim payment since December of 1956 when the board adopted a resolution specifically authorizing payments with submission of subsequent lists of warrants issued, he reported.

"It would stop county business to hold up payments until minutes were approved and signed," Mitchell declared.

Physical Ed Reviewed In Novato

The physical education program in Hill Intermediate School and Novato High School was reviewed last night by the Novato Unified School District trustees, at a special meeting in the high school.

Virginia Bertolli, instructor, directed a demonstration by eight high school girls in use of the trampoline.

Grading in the physical education course is done with 25 to 30 per cent being given on the uniforms and showering after class, said Ralph Cutler, high school physical education instructor. This is to impress cleanliness on the students, he said.

The board also agreed to hold another special meeting at 9 a.m. Saturday at the Sanchez property on Sutro Avenue to consider it for future school development. This property lies on the west side of Sutro Avenue between Novato Boulevard and Vineyard Avenue.

Planners Charged With 'Back Door Methods'

"Backdoor methods" detrimental to subdevelopers were charged against the Marin County Planning Commission before the county supervisors yesterday.

Robert Carroll, representing Sawyer Mountain Corp. as owners of Nicasio Valley Estates, was effective enough in his contention to persuade the supervisors to throw back at the planning commission a rezoning which the planners had already approved.

Carroll contended the commission not only instituted the rezoning, from one-family residential to limited agricultural with a fixed minimum 20-acre lot size, but did not notify the owners, who in consequence were not present when the commission approved the rezoning Oct. 9.

"This was a case of backdoor operation, not the intent of the subdivision map and zoning laws," said Carroll. "I feel that if the planning staff wants more control it should come and ask that the subdivision ordinance be changed, not do it by use of the zoning law.

"The owners in good faith relied on and acted in compliance with state law and had their map approved."

Principal planner B. D. Dobbs conceded that rezoning had been "instituted by the planning commission at the insistance of the staff." But he said notices had been sent. Carroll retorted that the action was unexpected and no appearance could be made.

Representing adjacent landowners and the original owners of the property, attorney Roderick P. Martinelli also objected that no notification had been given and that "we would have protested since this is likely to extend to our land."

"As there has not been a real hearing, through some inadvertence," said Chairman William D. Fusselman, "I suggest to Mr. (William) Gnoss (supervisor for the affected area) that this be returned to the planning commission."

Gnoss so moved. Dobbs protested that as the commission had already acted, perhaps it might hold another hearing on behalf of the supervisors.

"We'll hold our own hearings," replied Supervisor J. Walter Blair.

When Gnoss asked that notices be sent "to all property holders in the Nicasio Valley" Dobbs said it would be necessary to advise the commission Oct. 23, hold a hearing Nov. 6, and report back to the board Nov. 14.

Joy J. Holman Gets Divorce From Husband

Lee V. Holman, Mill Valley attorney and state inheritance tax appraiser, must pay $450 per month for the support of his wife and children, under a divorce granted to her today.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court ruled that Holman must pay $225 for the support of their three children, and another $225 as alimony for his wife, Joy J. Holman. After two years, the alimony will be reduced to $175 per month.

The judge granted Mrs. Holman the interlocutory decree on grounds of extreme cruelty. Holman did not contest the action.

Mrs. Holman retains possession of the family home in Mill Valley. However, other details of the property settlement agreement reached last month were not disclosed.

Storm Damage Funds Allocated

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—State Controller Alan Cranston today announced the annual allocation of 1.2 million dollars to 47 counties for snow removal and repairs for heavy rainfall and storm damage.

This included $700,000 for snow removal and the other $500,000 for repairs from rainfall and storm damage.

The money is paid to the counties in 12 monthly installments.

Re-Enlists In Army

Pfc. Darrell E. DeMartini, 23, son of Darrell P. DeMartini, 1428 Sir Francis Drake, San Anselmo, recently re-enlisted for three years in the Regular Army while serving with the 40th Artillery Brigade at the Presidio of San Francisco.

Black Point Ramp Bids To Be Sought

Bids for the projected boat launching ramp at Black Point will be asked by the State Wildlife Conservation Board within the next 30 days, Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato said today. He said he had just received this information by phone from Sacramento.

Completion of the ramp will take from two to three months after construction starts, it is estimated.

Ex-Turncoat Jailed Again: Drunkenness

LaRance V. Sullivan, 30, Marin City soldier who chose Red China after his capture in Korea and then returned to Marin in 1958, was back in Marin County Jail today on suspicion of arson and drunkenness.

He was arrested last night in Marin City, after a fire broke out in an unoccupied apartment at House 433.

Sheriff's Deputy Edward Koehn arrested Sullivan after neighbors reported seeing him loitering near House 433 just before the fire.

According to Deputy Koehn, Sullivan denied setting the fire. He said he tried to put out the fire by tossing rags against the flames, said Deputy Koehn.

Sullivan, who gave a San Francisco address, was held in jail without bail this morning.

Since his return from Red China, Sullivan has been in trouble several times for drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

College Students Observe At Drake

Seven students from San Franciso State College recently began observing the methods used by English, history, and physical education teachers at Sir Francis Drake High School. Some of them will be doing their student teaching at Drake during the spring semester.

This is a primary step to student teaching wherein the college students teach high school classes for one semester.

Participating students are Louis Haga, Carmen Jordan, John Legan, Keith Lester, Rosemary Mayfield, Susan Moyer, and John Sochor. They are assigned to Drake teachers until November.

Strep Infections Head Disease List

Sixteen cases of streptococci infection, eight of them in San Rafael, were reported to the Marin County Health Department last week, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, Marin county health officer, said today.

There were three cases in Mill Valley, two in Fairfax, one in Corte Madera and two in other areas.

Seven cases of gonorrhea consisted of two each in San Rafael and Novato, one in Marin City and two in other areas.

There were two cases of mump in San Rafael and one each in Mill Valley and Fairfax.

HIGH FLYING SCHOOL TEACHERS

Lt. Col. M. B. Nichols, left, flying safety officer with the 28th Air Division at Hamilton Air Force Base, gives pre-flight briefing to a group of Novato school teachers before they take off in T-33 jet training planes. From left are Fielding Reese and Joseph Gargiulo, Novato High School counsellors; Ralph Giovanniello, assistant superintendent of the Novato Unified High School District; and Sallie Paskow, Hill Intermediate School science teacher. The courtesy flights are part of the base's community relations program to acquaint residents with Air Force procedure. (Air Force photo)

North Marin Water Line Ceremony Set

A formal ceremony to set the last piece of pipe in North Marin Water District's 10-mile line to eventually bring Russian River water was tentatively set for Oct. 28 last night by district directors.

The pipeline will not be put into use until the link is completed from Petaluma to connect this line with the Russian River. This will probably be some time in December, according to Jerome B. Gilbert, north Marin district manager.

Directors also heard a report from Gilbert that the district now has approximately 200 million gallons of water on hand.

"This should be enough to do the district until winter rains come and we have the connection to the Russian River water," Gilbert said.

Fairfax School Board Seeking Federal Aid

Fairfax School District trustees last night approved an application to the federal government for funds for expansion of the district's science and foreign language programs.

The science project would cost $1,530 and the language program $929. Under the National Defense Act, one-half of the cost, if approved, will be borne by the government. The money would go toward permanent supplies, materials and books to be used in the courses of study.

The board authorized Supt. Homer L. Sisk to install a bell and light warning system in the three district schools at a cost of $125 per school. Maintenance for all three systems would be $15.75 per month. One-half the cost will be born by the Civil Defense Authority, Sisk said.

Phyllis Mitchell of 9 Barker Avenue, Fairfax, was hired as fourth grade teacher at Manor School at an annual salary of $5,800. Mrs. Mitchell will replace Colleen Mixon, whose resignation was accepted "with regret" by the trustees last night. Mrs. Mixon resigned because her husband's business is taking him out of the country.

The board approved application for a $25,000 loan from the county for current expenses pending collection of local taxes in December.

Beginning on Nov. 7, the trustees agreed to hold meetings twice monthly on the first and third Tuesday of each month. The board meets at 7:45 p.m. at the Manor School.

Santa Clara County Employees Get Raise

SAN JOSE (UPI) — The Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors has granted 700 county workers a five per cent wage increase.

The county finance officer said the salary hike, approved yesterday, will cost the county more than $300,000 a year.

Mainz, Germany, is a manufacturing and commercial city of about 127,000. It is the center of the Rhenish fine wines industry.

Man Booked On Violent Drunk Charge

A San Rafael man was booked at the county jail yesterday after allegedly becoming violent and attempting to hit a nurse at San Rafael General Hospital.

Paul Roland Buckner, 58, of 623 Mission Avenue, was taken to the hospital for treatment after he had fallen on the sidewalk at Fourth Street and Lootens Place about 10 a.m. yesterday.

Police were called by hospital attendants when it was noted that Buckner had been drinking heavily. While waiting for police to arrive, Buckner became violent, attendants said, and tried to hit Mrs. Mary Clark. He was given a sedative and strapped to an emergency operating table.

He was taken to jail in handcuffs where he was booked for disturbing the peace and drunkenness. Free on $131 bail, Buckner was to appear to answer the charges at 1:30 p.m. today.

Hub Trustees Expand Math, Science Plans

Expansion of the language, science and mathematics programs in the San Anselmo School District was approved by the trustees last night at a cost of $16,312.

Of this amount, only half, or $8,156 would be borne by the district. The remaining half would be paid by the federal government under Public Law 864 which provides for materials and supplies for the teaching of the three subjects.

All money expended would go toward books, permanent supplies and equipment. The science program will cost $7,520; mathematics, $6,305; and languages $2,487.

APPROVAL

The teaching programs and the lists of materials requested must be approved by the federal government through the State Board of Education, Supt. Stephen Parodi told the trustees.

Parodi said the task of compiling the lists of materials needed for expansion of the programs was started over a year ago.

The trustees agreed that a lack of equipment, especially in the science departments, had made it impossible for the district schools to treat the subjects as extensively as they would wish.

At the same time, the trustees expanded the language program further by approving French classes at Sleepy Hollow School. The classes, for eighth graders, would be held for one-half hour two times a week.

LUNCH HOUR

At the present time, lunch hour classes in French are being conducted at Isabel Cook and Brookside Schools.

Parodi reminded the board that the state code makes a foreign language mandatory for 6, 7 and 8th grades by 1965.

The trustees formally approved hiring of William Pike, 37, as sixth grade teacher at the Brookside School at an annual salary of $6,300.

Pike has taught for nine years in the Los Angeles area and has been teaching at Brookside School since Oct. 2.

The board also granted a leave of absence to John Sydor, Isabel Cook 8th grade teacher, for the 1962-63 school year.

Sydor applied for the leave so he could go abroad on a Fullbright grant. The leave was granted pending acceptance of his fellowship application.

There were 437,023 fires in all U.S. cities of 2,500 population or more in 1960. This was an increase of 4¼ per cent over the 419,556 fires in 1959.

Bundschu Resigns From Hub City School Board

Philip S. Bundschu last night resigned as trustee of the San Anselmo School District.

He thereby opened the way for first Marin application of a new law which permits local school boards to fill their own vacancies.

Bundschu, of 421 The Alameda, was first elected to the board in 1955. His present term expires June 30, 1963.

He gave as his reason for leaving the fact that other activities did not permit him to "adequately fulfill the duties of a trustee."

Chairman Mary Hedin at once announced applications for the position will be accepted by mail to be addressed to the district office at Isabel Cook School, 1024 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, until Nov. 14. The applicants will be screened by the board, he said, and one of them chosen to fill out Bundschu's term.

Heretofore, district school boards (except San Rafael, which acts under city charter) in Marin have been able only to recommend to the county superintendent on appointments to vacancies. The superintendent has appointed, and has not been bound by the board's recommendation.

Under the new law, enacted this year, the local board appoints. However, if it fails to do so within 60 days of the resignation, the county board of education must fill the vacancy. The county superintendent is removed completely from the picture.

Grand Jury Indicts Three Inmates For Escape, Assault

Marin County Grand Jurors yesterday indicted two San Quentin Prison convicts for assault with a deadly weapon.

Charged with escape are Galon Warren Van Sandt, 39, a car thief; and Robert Mowbray Jameson, serving time for burglary and robbery.

Van Sandt disappeared on Sept. 30 and was caught in a chicken coop at the Redwood City home of Alvin Thompson Sr. on Oct. 2. Thompson and his son Alvin Jr. are also indicted for conspiracy to aid in Van Sandt's escape. Alvin Jr. is an inmate of San Quentin, serving time for car theft.

Jameson escaped from San Quentin on Dec. 23, 1959. After almost two years of freedom, he was caught in San Francisco last Aug. 28. Jameson's recapture resulted from an odd coincidence.

Marin Sheriff's Deputy Edmond Mauberret had drawn composite sketches of two bandits who robbed a San Francisco Airport bank last August. San Francisco police picked up Jameson because he looked like one of the bandits in the composite sketches. Checking on Jameson's background, police learned that he had escaped from prison in 1959.

Sherman Clay Robinson, convicted of bad checks in Los Angeles and Orange Counties last year, was indicted for stabbing another inmate on Sept. 20. The victim was Edwin LeClair, Contra Costa car thief. Robinson is accused of plunging a screwdriver into LeClair's back.

All suspects are scheduled to appear in Marin Superior Court Monday morning.

HUB SCHOOL USE REQUEST TURNED DOWN

A request for free use of San Anselmo School District facilities for an "educational meeting" on Oct. 24 was turned down last night by the trustees.

The board policy is to allow rent-free use of their rooms to non-profit organizations.

All others, board policy states, must pay $10 an hour, with a minimum charge of $20.

Last night's applicant, the American Institute of Banking, could afford the nominal fee, the board reasoned.

$2.5 Million Apartment Approved

Plans for a two and one-half million dollar Sausalito apartment development were approved last night by the Sausalito City Council.

The city fathers approved a tentative map submitted by F. Bruce Bernhard, who said he expects to start construction next spring of the 90-unit development in the Rodeo Avenue area.

It is a joint venture of Bernhard and the Kingston Trio, and will be known as the Ardillo Apartments. Brad McNutt of Sausalito is the developer, Kenneth Frost of Tiburon, engineer, and architects and landscape architects are Patri, Patri and Patri of San Francisco.

The apartment will be in eight two and three-story buildings. There will be a recreation area to include a swimming pool, wading pool, tennis court and picnic area. All utilities are to be underground and about 200 trees are to be planted.

Discussion was held on City Engineer John L. Hunter's suggestion that the city pave the Rodeo-Woodward - Olive intersection at the time of Bernhard's developing, but the council took no action on this.

Citizens Protest Sign In Sausalito

A small group of citizens appeared before the Sausalito City Council last night protesting erection of a large sign at South and Alexander streets saying it "spoiled the view," it 'glared" and "it is illegal."

Following discussion among citizens, council and Otto J. Kralovec, administrator for the Albert Lovett Corp., Kralovec was persuaded to remove the sign today and meet with City Manager Charles A. Brown to try to agree on a smaller sign.

The sign describes the Lovett firm's 69-apartment project, giving names of the financing company and some contractors.

Protestants included Mrs. Winona Pierce who said "It glares," John Gallas who said "it's illegal," Leonard Bjorklund who said it was no way to greet people entering Sausalito, and Russell Papenhausen.

Councilmen all favored moving the sign and a smaller one except for Councilman George Keeney, who said the sign should be permitted. Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. was absent.

'Cleaner Air Week' Set For San Rafael

Next week will be "Cleaner Air Week" according to a proclamation issued yesterday by San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis.

"Let us make this year the one in which we take positive and constructive action to abate air pollution from all sources," said the mayor as he urged all citizens and organizations to participate.

Sabotage Is Ruled Out Of Dag's Plane Crash

NDOLA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — The plane crash that killed U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold a month ago apparently was an accident, the federal Rhodesian government reported to the United Nations today.

A continuing investigation has ruled out the liklihood of sabotage, the report said.

Bullet wounds found in the bodies of two of Hammarskjold's guards who were killed in the crash apparently resulted from explosion of ammunition in the fire that followed the crash, the investigators said.

Although ruling out sabotage, the investigating board said the cause of the crash still is unknown.

The Rhodesian federal government said it was issuing the report because the Hammarskjold crash "is to be debated in the United Nations this week."

Seven Perish In Airplane Crash At Travis

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—A civilian airplane crashed and burned today while taking off from Travis Air Force Base, killing all seven persons aboard.

The C-45 twin engine Beechcraft was an air taxi, operated by Golden Gate Airways, carrying arrivals from overseas to San Francisco International Airport.

The dead were identified as Air Force Lt. Col. Jack H. Lawton, Navy Cmdr. Donald M. H. L. Hagler, Air Force Maj. George K. Korycansky; Archie L. Spaulding, a Navy sailor; David L. Hogan and Robert L. Waller, civilians employed by the Air Force, and West Fielding, Alameda, the pilot.

The United Crusade, which is holding its annual drive for funds, will be topic of discussion from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow on radio KTIM's "Sounding Board" program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer.

Guests of Mrs. Oppenheimer will be Mrs. Thomas Mellon, Bay Area chairman of agency participation; Eugene Crawford, member of the speakers bureau; Don Kreps, chairman of allocations, and Harry Dalton, finance chairman.

Vacation Death Suspect Is Questioned

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—Hugh Bion Morse, 31, former mental patient who has already confessed four slayings, was to be questioned about a fifth today.

Sheriff Leroy Agalyen of Bakersfield, Calif., has asked that Morse be quizzed about the fatal shooting of Joseph Yilek, 27, and rape of his wife, Irene, 25. Yilek was shot to death while he and his wife slept in their boat trailer along U.S. 99 near Bakersfield, July 16.

Yesterday Morse admitted the rape slaying of Bobbie Ann Landini, 27, a divorcee, in her Birmingham, Ala., apartment last July 11. Mrs. Landini was found bludgeoned to death.

Morse also has admitted the rape slayings of two Spokane, Wash., women and of a St. Paul social worker.

He was indicted for second degree murder and burglary yesterday in the Sept. 19 rape and strangling of Carol Ronan, 34, in her St. Paul apartment.

Tape Of Scarbeck Confession Played

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A federal court jury today heard the voice of former diplomat Irvin C. Scarbeck admit that he passed a secret document to Red agents because he felt it would help improve Polish-American relations.

Scarbeck, accused of divulging U.S. Embassy secrets to the Communists in Warsaw, listened without emotion as a tape recording was played of his answers to a U.S. security officer.

During the 10-hour interrogation, Scarbeck finally conceded that he had slipped a secret report on Polish-American relations, written by U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam, to the Poles.

He said he did this to obtain a passport for his 22-year-old girl friend, Urszala Discher, with the help of the Polish intelligence agency.

Scarbeck said on the tape that he relayed Beam's views, labeled secret by the embassy, because it was "all plus."

He said Beam was favorably impressed by some aspects of Polish-American ties and felt the United States should expand its efforts to woo the Soviet satellite.

"I thought it would help improve relations," Scarbeck said. "There is nothing in it that affects the security of the United States."

Larkspur Council Meeting Tonight

Larkspur City Council is scheduled to set a public hearing for improvements to Marina Vista Avenue at today's adjourned meeting at 8 p.m. in the city hall. The plans have already gained approval of the city engineer, Beverly Whitlow.

Also on tonight's agenda will be plans for a drainage easement for two lots on Baltimore Avenue. The plans will be submitted by city atty. Samuel W. Gardiner.

A.F. Weapons Meet

'Creativity, Brains Don't Always Mix

BERKELEY (AP) — Many of America's highly creative men don't have academic records that would get them admitted to most graduate schools, a University of California research team has concluded.

This and other important factors of creativity were described yesterday by Dr. Donald W. MacKinnon, director of the university's Institute of Personality Assessment and Research.

6-YEAR STUDY

McKinnon headed a six-year study during which the institute probed the minds of 530 persons, including architects, writers, industrial research scientists, mathematicians and college students.

Those studied were selected as truly creative by a panel of experts in various fields. More than half spent a few days at Berkeley, where researchers questioned them and gave batteries of tests designed to assess their personalities and psychological makeups.

The biggest surprise came in the area of intelligence, said MacKinnon.

"There seems to be no relation between the degree of intelligence that exists and a person's creativity," he said. "A certain amount of intelligence is apparently necessary for creativity, but above that it doesn't make much difference."

MacKinnon said the minimum IQ of those tested was about 120.

DISTURBED

"It's certainly true that our most creative subjects haven't been grade-getters. The architects have ranged around B averages; the research scientists B to C. They're certainly not the A boys."

"Some creative individuals have been emotionally disturbed in the past, and some are disturbed and turbulent today. But most appear well able to handle their complex disturbances, MacKinnon reported.

"They're aware of life's difficulties and sensitive to distressing elements — but they are not suggestive of pathology."

Executive Buys Into Loan Firm

Dr. Earle M. Young of Kentfield has purchased a controlling interest in Systematic Savings and Loan Assn., Daly City, it was announced today.

Dr. Young, who is president of Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn., San Anselmo, and Trans Western Title Co., San Rafael, bought out James W. Raymond and David B. Sweeney, former major stockholders in the Daly City firm.

Systematic Savings and Loan, which opened in 1957, is listed as having current assets of $3,700,000.

Only Navigation Lock In California Is Open

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A 43-foot tugboat named Encinal poked its nose between high walls of concrete and steel.

Lumbering behind it, held by a thin cable, was the 126-foot dredge William E. Palmer. And behind the Palmer was another tug, the Benicia.

In that order yesterday, the three vessels became the first to sail through California's only navigation lock.

The lock is part of a 43-million-dollar project designed to make Sacramento a deep water port by July 1963.

It connects the Sacramento River with the city's new harbor. Barges will be carried from the river to a barge canal and then to big cargo ships anchored in the port.

A 43-mile ship channel — more than half completed — will link the harbor to Suisun Bay, bypassing twisting sections of the Sacramento.

When the river is lower than the canal, barges will be raised. When it is higher — during flood season, for example — vessels will be lowered into the canal.

Before passing through the locks yesterday, the Palmer had been widening a nearby section of the river. Its next job is to dig the barge canal on the harbor side of the lock.

It took three years and seven million dollars to build the lock. It is 680 feet long and 86 feet wide and the huge gates on either end of it weigh 320,000 pounds each.

"It's all right," said a workman. "A little smaller than the Panama maybe, but all right."

Tentative Approval Given Buena Vista Subdivision

The Sausalito City Council last night approved a tentative map of Buena Vista subdivision unit 3, but left for Nov. 7 decision on an appeal that a nine-story apartment building be included in it.

The subdivision, by Perego, Harney and Teague, Inc., of San Francisco, will include about 10 single-family homes and six duplexes, plus the apartment. The planning commission rejected the apartment, which would be far in excess of the height limit for the area. The developers appealed to the city council.

The council also tabled an offer from developer Kurt Heath to deed the city a 40-foot strip of land in Marinship bordering his property and running east and west between Bridgeway and the proposed north-south road.

The council, on recommendation of City Atty. John B. Ehlen, said it would consider the offer later, when and if Heath develops the road as part of the Heath-Allied Grocers Shopping Center.

The council also:

1. Received a letter from Christ Church Episcopal saying it does not wish to sell a portion of its property for city playground use and directed City Manager Charles A. Brown to write back saying the city remains interested in the playground.

2. Heard that an application has been made to the alcoholic beverages control board for a license for on-sale beer by Cass Gidley at 1702 Bridgeway.

3. Approved 4-0, Mayor Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. absent on business, request by attorney William B. Wolfson for variance from off-street parking requirements for an office building to be constructed at Bridgeway and Turney Street.

4. Discussed fire traffic preemption signals for Bridgeway at Princess Street but took no action.

5. Voted 4-0 that a request from Sausalito-Marin City Sanitary District for encroachment to construct a sewage outfall at Bridgeway and Mono Street be denied, and suggested that the district cooperate with the city in use of the sewer at Locust Street.

6. Denied 4-0 a request by contractor Sam Young to put a canopy to encroach five feet over city sidewalk in front of the new Sausalito pharmacy under construction at 701 Bridgeway.

7. Heard, in a financial status report of Sausalito as of Sept. 30, that revenues during September were $15,000 and for the year $78,000, a drop of $3,000 for the month but an increase of $10,000 over the first quarter of last fiscal year. Expenditures were $52,000, a three per cent increase on last year's first quarter expenditures.

Planning Aide For Sausalito Gains Approval

William E. Spangle Jr. of Menlo Park was tentatively approved by the Sausalito City Council last night as professional consultant to the planning commission, pending details to be worked out with regard to his salary.

City Manager Charles A. Brown is to work out salary and contract and report to the council in a week.

Spangle, 50, of Menlo Park was recommended by the planning commission as a part-time planning consultant, commission chairman Paul Micou said, after the commission had interviewed four planners.

Drunken Driver Draws $166 Fine

Rudolph Sturgis Goffigon, 54, of 1870 Vistazo West, Tiburon, drew $166 fine and six months probation yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Goffigon for driving while intoxicated along Paradise Drive at Main Street in Tiburon last Friday.

Little Girl Given Special Chair For Physical Therapy

Five-year-old Debra Ann Grohs has a new chair, a gift from inventive friends at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Not an ordinary chair, this one has wheels, allows Debra to sit, recline or stand, and has a tray on which she can eat or play with toys.

It also performs a vital function: physical therapy for Debra who is recovering from brain damage caused by a temporary heart stoppage during a tonsilectomy last June in an English hospital.

Unconscious for almost three months following the accident, Debra did not speak for another five weeks. Since then she has been in Air Force hospitals in Germany and California, arriving at Hamilton in August.

Her special chair was designed by S/Sgt. Millard Olson and built under his direction by A/1C Marion Bickel, A/3C John Schmulein and civilian Max Grayson, all of the 78th Transportation Squadron.

Debra is now out of hospitals for the first time and happy to be at home with her parents, A/C and Mrs. Kenneth Grohs of 1134 East Bodkin Avenue at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Railroad Telegraphers Want Strike Ban Order Dissolved

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Officials of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers planned to ask federal Judge Albert C. Wollenberg today to dissolve a restraining order forbidding a strike against Southern Pacific Railroad.

Wollenberg issued the restraining order yesterday several hours after the union announced it planned to strike the railroad tomorrow. The walkout could tie up service by S.P. in seven Western states.

The judge set Oct. 26 for arguments on the railroad's petition for a preliminary injunction. The union said it would ask that the order be dissolved and the hearing be held immediately.

"We have complied with all provisions of the Railroad Labor Act," said G. E. Leighty, head of the union. "We feel we can show conclusively that the restraining order should be dissolved."

Southern Pacific obtained the restraining order on grounds that the main issue in the dispute, the reduction of jobs, was still pending before the national railroad adjustment board. Railroad attorneys argued that a strike cannot be called until "our administrative remedies have been exhausted."

The railroad said the walkout could halt Peninsula commute service and cost S.P. more than one million dollars damages a day. A union spokesman said other craft brotherhoods would respect picket lines in California, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, New Mexico and Texas.

The strike was called yesterday after more than a year of negotiations and conferences with an emergency board appointed by President John F. Kennedy after an original strike date was set for July 24.

The union said the sole issue in the dispute is the reduction of wire chiefs, block and tower operators and station agents from 1,689 in 1955 to 1,068 last year.

The railway mediation board retired from the dispute last March after it was unable to reach a settlement. Union spokesmen said all attempts to avert a walkout through settlement had been exhausted.

Golf Club Theft Suspects Nabbed In San Francisco

Two men suspected of breaking into the Marin Golf and Country Club at Ignacio last week have been rounded up in San Francisco and were to be brought to Marin County for questioning.

Novato police went to San Francisco to bring the suspects back. Their names were not immediately known.

Marin sheriff's deputies also want to question the men in connection with a similar break-in at the Indian Valley Golf Club about the same time. Sweaters were taken in each theft, and the Indian Valley Golf Club also lost $1,200 in cash.

San Francisco police reported they had nabbed two men with several sweaters in their possession. The sweaters bore tags with the label "Marin Golf Club," police said.

2 Rezone Proposals Going To Planners

Hearings on two proposals for rezoning 100 acres on the Tiburon Peninsula will be held Monday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The commission will give further hearing to the petition by William N. Denton of San Rafael to rezone land adjoining Bel Aire Estates on the north and lying on both sides of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad from limited agricultural and single family to planned residential. If granted, this would permit apartment construction.

The commission also will act on a resolution of intent of its own to rezone the property to planned residential, one-family district.

Also at its meeting, beginning at 9 am. at 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, the commission will consider publicly the tentative map of Walnut Manor subdivision near Novato by B. and T. Construction Co. of Corte Madera, County Planning Director Mary Summers said.

The area is about five acres bounded on the west by lands of Freitas and of Powell, on the east by lands of Sechrest and on the north by Leese Lane, near Simmons Lane.

The subdividers propose to divide the area into 18 lots of a minimum of 7,500 square feet with none less than 70 feet in average width.

Other matters to come up include:

An amendment to reclassify about 40,000 square feet on the southwest corner of the intersection of Knoll Lane and South Knoll Road, Alto area, from suburban agricultural to planned residential;

A hearing to rezone about 8½ acres on the west side of Highway 101 opposite the Marin County Airport from Light industrial to highway business district; a hearing on application of George Davi for a use permit for a dry cleaning and shirt laundry plant in Terra Linda Shopping Center;

A hearing on application by Bethel Lutheran Church for permission to put a 4-by-4-foot sign near Mar West and Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, to indicate temporary location of church services; and a hearing on an amendment to the county zoning ordinance to regulate excavation, grading and fill on land in the unincorporated areas, providing for permits for such activity and repealing the current excavation ordinance;

Auto Stylists Says Tail Fins Are Now Finis

NEW YORK (UPI)—Tail fins are gone from cars because they have served their purpose, a top automotive stylist said last night.

Virgil M. Exner, vice president and director of styling for Chrysler Corp., said he eliminated fins from his firm's cars this year because they have outlived their usefulness as a styling symbol.

"As an accent," he said, "the fins served their purpose. They gave our cars a visible difference" and aren't needed any more.

As for the future, he said, you will not see as much glass on windshield and back windows as in the past.

"There will be a recession in glass in cars," he said, "until glass or some other clear substance can be developed to more completely reflect the sun's heat rays and eliminate glare."

"We've had complaints about glare," he added. "And we will have to use less glass in windshields until we find a way to eliminate it."

But he said, there probably will be more glass in side windows of cars because stylists will try to lower the "beltlines" and thus give autos a longer, fuller and more graceful appearance.

DUAL JOBHOLDERS HURTING NO ONE

New Public Survey On 'Moonlighting' Shows Jobless Not Robbed By Practice

WASHINGTON (AP) — Workers holding down several jobs are not robbing fellow toilers of a chance to earn a living, the Labor Department suggested today.

It made public a new survey on prevalence and characteristics of dual jobholding — or moonlighting as it is commonly called.

Over three million persons, or 4.6 per cent of all those employed in the country held more than one job when the survey was taken in December, 1960. This means nearly one out of 20 held second jobs.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said, however, that the number and proportion of dual jobholders has not been increasing in recent years. Also, it was found for the first time, he said, that moonlighting is a misnomer.

More of the dual jobholders, contrary to popular belief, work on their extra jobs during daylight hours rather than at night.

Only 34 per cent of the dual jobholders were reported as working mostly at night on their extra job; 42 per cent worked mostly during weekday working hours; and 24 per cent primarily on weekends.

Goldberg had some comments on the agitation from jobless workers during periods of heavy unemployment of "there oughta be a law" banning anyone from holding more than a single job.

"The results of this survey give little support," the secretary said, "to the notion that the unemployment problem could be solved by prohibiting extra jobholding.

"The hours worked on the second jobs are usually very short, and a great many of these jobs—for example, those in farming and the professions—would be unsuited to the unemployed or of little interest to them."

Only about 180,000 of the three million dual jobholders worked full time on both jobs. Typically, the total hours worked by the multiple jobholder added up to 50 on both jobs, with 11 hours devoted to the extra job.

Some examples of extra jobholding: The factory worker with a side job working evenings in a drug store, a postal clerk devoting off hours as a gas station attendant, and the office secretary doing weekend clerking in a department store.

About 850,000 of the extra jobholders had extra jobs operating their own farm or business.

Why you
SAVE 15% ON PHONE CALLS to other communities in THE BAY AREA

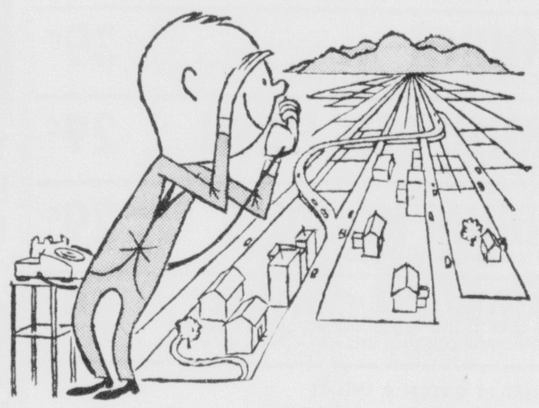
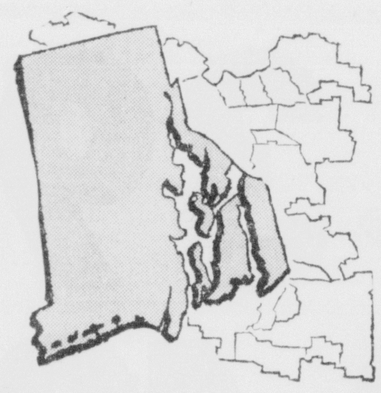
Over the years, cities and towns in the Bay Area have grown into a giant community.

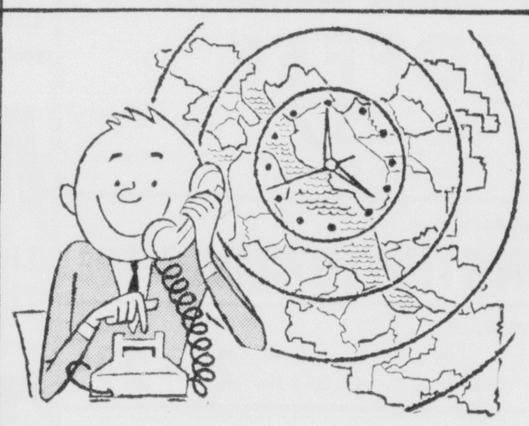


And you're dialing more and more places in this expanding Metropolitan Area.

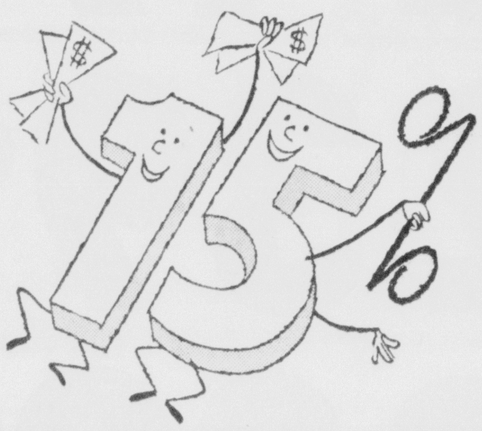


This is a metropolitan calling area larger than the state of Rhode Island.

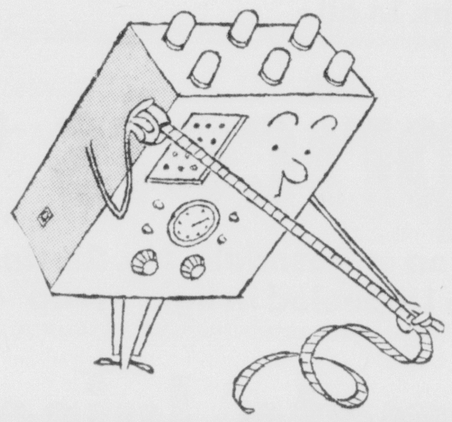
But today you can call within this area for less than long distance rates.



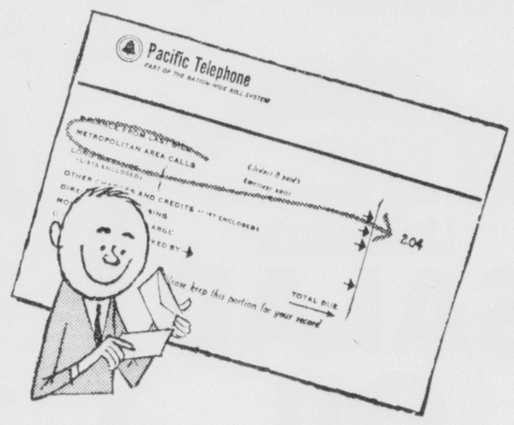
These calls are measured in message units, which show how far you call and how long you talk.



A message-unit call costs 15% less than Long Distance for the same time and distance.



The reason is that high-speed electronic equipment records these message units . . .



. . . and we combine them on your bill instead of itemizing each call.

This costs less for bookkeeping than it would to itemize each call separately.

So you pay less for message-unit calls dialed anywhere within one of the broadest communities in the U.S.

If you need your Metropolitan Area calls itemized because you want a breakdown of costs for business purposes or any other reason—then place them with the Operator. Tell her to put them through as station-to-station calls. The charges will appear separately on your bill, without the 15% saving.

MOST HAPPY VISITOR — Bashir Ahmad, the Pakistan camel driver who is in the United States as the guest of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, flashes a big smile after receiving the keys to a truck yesterday at Dallas, Tex. (AP Wirephoto)

TIRED BUT HAPPY

Camel Driver Sinks Teeth Into A Steak

COMBINED AP & UPI

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Bashir Ahmad, the camel driver from Pakistan who is touring the United States as Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's guest, ate a Kansas City steak today and saw a champion steer auctioned for $5.10 a pound.

"The steak was wonderful, the best I've ever eaten," the 48-year-old people-to-people emissary said through his interpreter.

Ahmad was the guest of honor at breakfast at a restaurant in Kansas City's stockyards district. The city's top social set attended.

Immediately after the breakfast, Ahmad sat among raw-boned Kansas cowboys in the sales pavilion at the American Royal Livestock show and watched bidders run up the price on Maybe II, an Iowa-produced Angus steer named grand champion of the show yesterday.

"I am right at home here," Ahmad beamed. "In my country, cattle auctions are an everyday occurrence."

Bashir arrived here by jet tourist flight last night after a busy day in Texas.

"I am so tired I can hardly keep my eyes open," he said through an interpreter. "My face is full of fatigue."

He flashed his big grin. It is a production. The ends of his long mustache turn up. He shows his teeth. He looks straight into your eyes, and his face is all warmth.

"They told me when the camel cart driver got on the jet Comet he would have a heart attack," he said. "So I told them: 'I am going to see my friend Johnson. If I have a heart attack; then let it go down in history that this man had a heart attack while going to see his friend.'"

Before he left home, Bashir said he wanted to meet ordinary people in this country, not just big shots.

"I can not differentiate between them," he said. "Their love and affection toward me has been the same."

In Dallas yesterday Bashir received a new pickup truck.

"With this I can do in one hour what it took one day to do with a camel," he said.

But he will not sell the camel.

"It was through the camel that I met Vice President Lyndon Johnson," said Bashir. "I will not sell him. He will stay with me always."

Bashir and his entourage — the interpreter, a State Department escort and a member of Johnson's staff — will fly to Baltimore this evening. Bashir will start seeing Washington tomorrow morning.

Eight Die In Algeria Clashes; Paris Moves Against Rioters

PARIS (UPI)—Terrorists killed eight more persons in Algeria in the past 24 hours as the French government moved swiftly today to deport Algerian Moslems who rioted in the streets of Paris last night. Two were killed and 55 hospitalized in that earlier violence.

Government spokesman Louis Terrenoire emerged from a cabinet meeting to announce that 1,500 of the 11,500 Algerians arrested last night will be shipped back home within the next 48 hours.

The 11,500 were almost half the 25,000 Algerians who rioted in this tourist-filled capital city in demonstrations against a government-imposed curfew restricting their nighttime movement.

Terrenoire said all those arrested were released by early today but those to be deported would be rounded up again and shipped out.

Terrenoire said 1,000 special riot police have been moved into Paris from the provinces to cope with more demonstrations expected tomorrow during another protest against a government curfew.

In Algeria itself, more racial rioting broke out again today.

One European was shot dead and several Europeans and Moslems wounded in Oran, which has been wracked for almost a week with similar violence.

Fairfax Man Pays For Prank

Air is not exactly free, especially if you let it out of the tire of a patrol car, a Fairfax man learned yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Judge Leonard A. Thomas slapped a $56 fine on Ronald Lee Webb, 21, of 38 Ridge Road, Fairfax, and put him on six months' probation. Webb admitted he had let the air out of the tire of a San Rafael police car Saturday night at the Country Club Bowl.

Officer Eugene Frederick had parked the squad car outside the bowl. When he returned, a citizen was holding Webb for the officer.

There are some 300 varieties of sharks, ranging from two to 60 feet in length. About a dozen are considered particularly dangerous.

HUB SCHOOL FALLOUT SHELTERS PROPOSED

Huge fallout shelters on school property were proposed to San Anselmo School District trustees last night by a Sleepy Hollow resident.

Russell W. La Belle, an investment broker of 21 Crane Drive, who said he is a director of Sleepy Hollow Homeowners Assn. and was speaking "for the community," declared residents "would be willing to finance this with a bond issue."

Fallout shelters for 100 persons, which he said was the maximum that could be handled psychologically and physically in one shelter, would cost, completely equipped, as much as $50,000 each. "Holding shelters," which he described as temporary refuges for children in event of attack, would cost less, he said.

The board agreed to investigate the legality of the question of building such shelters on school property.

Hub Orphanage Wants More Negotiation

Sunny Hills Presbyterian Orphanage last night urged the San Anselmo School District board not to "shut the door" on negotiations regarding 13.25 acres of land owned by the orphanage and under condemnation by the district.

The district on Sept. 22 filed suit to condemn the land in an effort to acquire it for a school site. It is part of a 40-acre parcel the orphanage is seeking to rezone to multiple residential for apartment house development.

Sunny Hills has proposed that the district, instead, take over other property behind the Isabel Cook School, including the playground at Memorial Park and the American Legion Log Cabin.

Attorney Leland H. Jordan, representing the orphanage, urged the trustees last night to give the suggestion "serious consideration rather than decide on the spur of the moment what you want."

Sunny Hills representatives are scheduled to meet with the San Anselmo Planning Commission on Nov. 20, Jordan said.

Supt. Stephen Parodi told the trustees that the State Allocations Board had approved plans for the school additions as proposed on the Sunny Hills property, but had rejected the plan proposed by Sunny Hills. "It would mean two schools sharing a single playground area," Parodi said. The state would not approve such use, he declared.

The board agreed with a suggestion by trustee Robert W. Corlett that discussion with Sunny Hills continue even though the suit has been filed.

"Perhaps we can come up with a solution," Corlett said.

Parodi informed the trustees that attorneys Wallace S. Myers and Elliot Seymour had requested more time to prepare arguments against proposed condemnation of two and one-half acres needed for expansion of Wade Thomas School.

The property owners represented by the attorneys are Mrs. Harriet Vail, Marguerite Monteverde, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lancelotti and Gladys Donohue.

The board approved hiring John Knox Morris as administrative intern at annual salary of $3,250. Morris would assist Parodi on a part-time basis in administrative work.

Morris has been a school teacher, principal and superintendent. He was one of 15 applicants interviewed, Parodi said. For the remainder of the current year, Morris will be paid $2,925.

In other action, the trustees:

1. Agreed to send three teachers and one principal to a mathematics conference at Asilomar on Nov. 7 and 8 at a total cost to the district of $176.

2. Were told enrollment in the district now totals 1,973 pupils.

3. Approved request of the district to borrow $30,000 from the county until state apportionment funds are received in November and county taxes are collected in December.

4. Approved warrants and payroll checks totaling $58,560.

5. Set Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. at the Isabel Cook School as the time and place of an adjourned meeting.

Woman, 71, Burned In Home Fire

Mrs. Carolyn Wilhelmi, 71, suffered burns on arms, chest and back when a fire erupted in her apartment at 1115 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, last night.

She was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

The fire, which sprang up at 11:40 p.m., was confined to the living room of the apartment. Burned were the couch, side of the wall and the rug. None of the other seven units were touched by the fire, reported Kentfield Fire Chief John McLean.

Firemen believed the fire was caused by a cigarette. Sent to the fire were three engines and 20 men, to make sure the flames did not engulf the entire apartment house.

'Bike Rodeo' Held For School Children

Two hundred bicycles belonging to pupils at the Wolfe Grade School in Kentfield were to engage in a "bike rodeo" from 1:30 p.m. today under sponsorship of California Highway Patrolman Paul Zensius as part of the patrol's safety education program. Skill tests and mechanical inspection were to be featured.

A similar program will be conducted at Adeline Kent School, also in Kentfield, from 1:30 p.m. tomorrow with probably 300 to 400 bicycles involved.

Zensius is to conduct a "stopping distance program" involving tests of both an automobile and bicycles at McPhail School in Santa Venetia Friday afternoon.

Guinness Film Set Tomorrow At Center

"Our Man in Havana," a British comedy starring Alec Guinness, will be presented tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. at the Marin Jewish Community Center in San Rafael.

Next on the center's foreign film festival agenda is a French movie "The Wild Oats" which will be shown on Oct. 26.

New Youth Program At Center

A new aspect has been added to the Marin Jewish Community Center's youth program.

Starting today the San Rafael Center will open a special educational series designed for pre-teens.

The classes, not generally offered in the community for this age classification, will provide training in French, drama, music and ice skating.

The sessions are as follows:

Ice Skating—For ages 8 to 12 years; weekly meetings on Wednesdays from 4 to 5 p.m. at Raydine's Ice Skating rink in San Anselmo; starting tomorrow for six sessions.

Music—For ages 7 to 9 years; weekly meetings on Fridays from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Center in San Rafael; starting Friday for 15 sessions.

Theater Work Shop—For ages 7 to 12 years; weekly meetings on Mondays from 4 to 5:15 p.m. at the Center in San Rafael; starting Monday for 15 sessions.

French — For second and third graders; weekly meetings on Mondays from 3:45 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. at the Center in San Rafael; starting Monday for 15 sessions.

Bel Aire Group Meeting Tonight

The Bel Aire Property Owners Assn. will meet at 8 p. m. today at Bel Aire School to discuss the proposed rezoning of 100 acres north of the school.

William Denton has asked that the property be rezoned from single family to either planned residential or planned community, which would include apartments.

The proposal has drawn many letters of protest to the county planning commission. David N. Van Pelt, county principal planner, will attend the meeting to answer questions.

MACHEN PUMMELS LONDON

America's Eddie Machen (left) pummeled Britain's Brian London to win a fifth round technical knockout last night in London. Machen said, "Now I want a fight with Henry Cooper (British champion) to decide who is the number one contender." Last night London who was like a punching bag for Machen, retired from the scheduled 10-rounder complaining his nose felt like it was broken. (AP Wirephoto)

Loss Of Hornung Shocks Packers

GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI) — Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi, stunned by an announcement that halfback Paul Hornung and linebacker Ray Nitschke were ordered to active military duty, today said "It's too early to tell" who will replace them.

Hornung, 25, former All-America from Norte Dame and the leading scorer in the National Football League the past two seasons, will report Oct. 30 to Ft. Riley, Kan., with the 896th engineer co.

Nitschke, 24, was ordered to active duty with the 32nd National Guard Division of Wisconsin at Ft. Lewis, Wash., Nov. 3.

Lombardi said he'll "have to use what I have and right now it's too far away to think about."

Both players will be able to get in two more Sundays of action with the Packers before reporting. Both Green Bay games will be against the Minnesota Vikings, with one meeting in Minneapolis Sunday and the other at Milwaukee Oct. 29.

The announcement came from 14th Army Corps headquarters in Minneapolis because of what a spokesman said was due to "earlier rumors." The headquarters normally refuses to disclose activation orders except on a "personal information" basis.

Lombardi said Hornung and Nitschke were "pretty disturbed" about going back on active duty, but added he didn't think a deferment would be sought. Both are army privates who saw six months of active duty with the reserves.

49er Shotgun In For Supreme Test Against Bears At Chicago Sunday

HANLEY

This spring George Halas, as usual, was wintering in Phoenix, soaking up his share of the Arizona sun. Occasionally he would take in one of the exhibition baseball games but, as usual, you couldn't keep him on the subject of baseball long. Adroitly, he would channel any baseball conversation to football.

"I was an outfielder with the New York Yankees in 1919 but they were thinking about getting a guy named Ruth so I wound up at St. Paul where I ripped off an umpire's sleeve hollering over a called third strike," he will acknowledge and then cleverly take you from St. Paul to Decatur where he organized the Staleys, charter members of the NFL now known as the Chicago Bears.

Thus, having established football as the topic of conversation he is ready for questions. And one of the questions asked him this spring was: "What's the outlook for the 1961 NFL season?"

"THE 49ERS," he said, "could be right up there battling for second place. I'm riding with Green Bay to repeat. The Packers have everything. I'd take the Rams and Lions to be batting for second with the 49ers having a chance. I rate the Colts as semi-champs now—not good enough. Of course, I never predict what will happen to the Bears."

Not a bad overall prediction, not precisely accurate, but still not a bad bit of crystal gazing seven months before the season opened. It's true Papa Bear never predicts what his team will do but down deep in his heart he starts every season believing he has a championship outfit.

HALAS IS one of the smartest coaches in football and his lifelong friend, Clark Shaughnessy, is equally brilliant. If Red Hickey can blast past them Sunday in Chicago's Wrigley Field with his 49er Shotgun, we think the redhead will bring the first football title to the Golden Gate.

If two of the best brains in football are unable to find the Shotgun's flaws — whatever they might be—then it must be regarded as something more than a passing fancy nothwithstanding Shaughnessy's previous labeling of it as unsound, not a "bread and butter" formation.

Regardless of Shaughnessy's critical evaluation of the Shotgun at the Palo Club last May or a similar critique placed on it a fortnight ago by Buck Shaw, the 49er-Bear game Sunday should be considered the supreme test of the Shotgun's true merits.

THAT IT definitely does have positive points already is a matter of record in the 49-0 romp over Detroit, the 35-0 whitewash of Los Angeles and the 38-24 win over Minnesota despite eight presentations of the ball to the Vikings on six fumbles and two interceptions.

And if that isn't enough evidence, then the fact that the Colts copied the Shotgun in a number of plays last week while playing the Bears—though not beating them—is at least proof Baltimore's Weeb Eubank thinks it has some merit.

PAUL HORNUNG
A call to arms

Independent-Journal Sports

Kilmer Glamor Boy Of Ground Gainers

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung of Green Bay and Milt Plum of the Cleveland Browns held their places atop the National Football League's principal offense tabulations last week. But the glamor boy of ground-gaining was rookie Bill Kilmer of the San Francisco 49ers.

Kilmer, national college leader in total offense last season and most valuable player in the All-Star game at Chicago last summer, found himself as a pro runner when he was installed as one of the three rotating quarterbacks in San Francisco's shotgun offense.

In his last three games, Kilmer has run for 334 yards and has scored eight touchdowns. Latest NFL individual offense figures show him as the No. 4 rusher with 356 yards on 59 carries and tied with Baltimore's Lenny Moore for second in scoring with 48 points. He also has completed 11 of 22 passes for 172 yards.

BOOSTS LEAD

Green Bay's Taylor also scored four touchdowns in the Packers' rout of Cleveland and ran for 158 yards to improve his lead over Jimmy Brown of the Browns. Taylor has gained 518 yards in 81 attempts for a 6.4 yard average. Hornung picked up 13 points on a touchdown and seven conversions to run his point total of 77.

Plum, who took the passing lead the week before, maintained it in the intricate NFL computations by completing 17 of 26 for 193 yards.

Cincy's Jay Honored For Top Comeback

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Jay, who bounced back from three so-so seasons with Milwaukee to become the ace right-hander for the Cincinnati Reds, was named the National League's comeback player-of-the-year for 1961 today.

Jay received 59 of the 151 votes by baseball writers in the annual Associated Press poll. Frank Thomas, the Braves' slugging outfielder, was second with 45. The remainder were scattered among 21 different players. Duke Snider, veteran Los Angeles outfielder, was third with eight votes, and Sandy Koufax, Dodger pitcher, was fourth with six.

Jay, acquired last Dec. 15 in a deal involving shortstop Roy McMillan, lost his first three games the past season. However, he recovered to finish with a 21-10 record as the Reds won their first pennant in 21 years.

In 1960, the 26-year-old bonus player won nine games and lost eight for Milwaukee.

Thomas, former star outfielder for Pittsburgh, regained his old form shortly after moving from the Chicago Cubs to Milwaukee in a May 9 trade for Mel Roach. A .238 batsman with the Cubs in 1960, Thomas finished the 1961 campaign with a .283 average, 27 homers and 73 runs batted in.

Snider was sidelined five weeks with a fractured collarbone early in the season. Yet, he managed to hit 16 homers while compiling a .296 batting mark. The previous year Snider had a .243 average with 14 home runs.

Koufax who 10 more games the past year than he did in 1960 while losing the same amount. His record was 18-13 compared to 8-13. The fireballing left-hander also set a league record for strikeouts with 269.

49ers Warned: Concentrate On The Bears

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco 49ers had a hard time yesterday keeping his team thinking of the Chicago Bears after news broke of the call to military duty of the Green Bay Packers' Paul Hornung and Ray Nitschke.

The 49ers and Packers are currently in a neck and neck race for the National Football League's Western Division title.

Hickey received some good news from the military as the Packers were receiving their bad news. The Army announced that lineman Lou Cordileone has been given a 90-day deferment of a knee injury which requires him to wear a brace.

KEY MAN

Cordileone, a key man since guard Mike Magac was ordered to report to military service, was obtained from the New York Giants in trade for former 49er quarterbacking great Y. A. Tittle.

To suggestions that loss of halfback Hornung and linebacker Nitschke by the Packers would give the San Franciscans the inside track, Hickey would only say:

"We don't even know they (Packers) are around. It's a two-team race all right, but as far as we're concerned it's a two-team race between us and the Chicago Bears (the 49er's Sunday opponents).

Green Bay is the only team that has defeated the 49ers in league play this year.

MARIN BOWLING ROUNDUP

Zeno Gelatti's Big Series Highlights League Action

Two Marin bowlers knocked out some outstanding scores at county lanes recently.

Zeno R. Gelatti, throwing in the Monday Scratch Trio league at Marin Bowl fired a 668 series on game of 249, 219 and 200. And at Greenbrae Lanes in the 910 Classic league, Ken Carlton rolled a terrific 662 series. His games were 222, 228 and 212. He was pushed by Dud Mueller who fired a 626 with 226 and 239 games. This week Gelatti at Marin Bowl came up with a 652 series to push himself to a 211 game average.

Some handsome individual scores were tallied also. The highest announced was by Wes Metz at Marin Bowl. A 135 averager, Metz on a Sunday afternoon, burned in nine successive strikes and came out with a 264.

Last week it was reported that Em Smith rolled a record 240 at Nave Lanes.

This week fans of Em Smith of Nave Lanes are still searching for a better score than her 240 of two weeks ago, hoping not to find a better score. However, because if they don't Mrs. Smith holds the county record for an idividual woman's high score.

A couple of healthy 245s were thrown by Marinites. Ray Kemp got his in the Men's Series and Games at Greenbrae Lanes and Charles Roark at Nave in the 815 Scratch.

At Country Club a teen-ager, Marge McDaniel, threw a handsome 243 series in Junior Bowling League action. Those lanes have a 3-9, win-loss record to date in the Junior Bay Area 900 Masters tournament. High team scorers for the contest were Ed Possesiney with a 204—577, and Howard Salkin, 208—563.

College Girl Takes First Place Medal

Kathy Poganski, 18, of the College of Marin today is polishing her gold metal for first place in the Pacific Assn. Synchronized Swimming Novice Routine Meet.

Kathy, representing the Ann Curtis Swim Club in San Rafael, scored 47.75 points in the Sunday meet in San Francisco by swimming to the arrangement, "Crazy About Jazz." It was the highest individual total of the meet.

Laureen Poganzki and Janis Steinmetz, as a team, placed second in the duet competition and Mo Donovan and Darleen Bardner were fifth in the finals of the same meet. All the girls were of the Ann Curtis Club.

Seals Get First League Victory

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The San Francisco Seals broke into the Western Hockey League win column for the first time last night, drubbing Calgary 9-6 in the only league game of the evening.

Al Nicholson, Buddy Boone and Bob Solinger, each with a pair of goals, spearheaded the San Francisco attack. Solinger also had three assists as did Nick Mickowski.

A crowd of 2,841 saw San Francisco goalie Bev Bentley stop 40 shots as the Stampeders dropped their first game at home.

Fullmer Vs. Paret For Title Dec. 9

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP)—NBA middleweight boxing champion Gene Fullmer switched today from training for a deer hunt to training for defense of his title against Beny "Kid" Paret.

Matchmaker Mel Greb of Las Vegas, Nev., announced last night he had signed Fullmer and Paret, the welterweight champion, for an NBA middleweight championship fight in Las Vegas Dec. 9.

Fullmer told the Associated Press he's seen Paret fight a couple of times on television. "He's a real busy fighter, fast and has good combinations. It'll be a rough fight."

Gene, the Mormon mauler, said he began training last week for the deer season which opens in Utah this Saturday. "I knew I couldn't make it up those hills after that deer."

Now he'll get in shape to stalk Paret in his seventh defense of the National Boxing Assn. crown he won by knocking out Carmen Basilio in 1958.

Celtics Involved In Racial Row, Refuse To Play

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Seven Negro professional basketball players refused to participate in an exhibition basketball game here last night after five of them said a hotel coffee shop denied them service.

The five, all members of the Boston Celtics, were Bill Russell, Al Butler, Sam Jones, K. C. Jones and Tom Sanders. They told Coach Red Auerbach they wanted to return to Boston and they boarded a plane after the incident at Phoenix Hotel coffee shop.

Two Negro players of the St. Louis Hawks, Woody Sauldsberry and Cleo Hill, joined in refusing to play.

Art Lang, assistant director of the hotel, said the hotel did not have discriminatory policies and the incident was the result of a misunderstanding.

The Hawks won the game 128-103.

Yankees Each Get $7,389 From Series

NEW YORK (AP) — The victorious New York Yankees each received $7,389.11 for their World Series victory over the Cincinnati Reds, but they came out about $1,100 poorer than the Pittsburgh Pirates, who won in 1960.

The Pirates came out with $8,417.94 each last year because their home park, Forbes Field, had a bigger capacity than Cincinnati's Crosley Field.

The share for each Yankee was the lowest since 1952, Commissioner Ford Frick announced Tuesday. The Yanks of 1952 each banked $5,982.65 after beating Brooklyn in the series.

The Yanks voted 36 1/6 shares, plus cash awards of $4,500. This included 33 full shares along with seven fractional slices.

The FISHIN' FOOL

Congratulations Due Marin's Frank Gratti On His Patience For Ducks

STEVENS

They tell me the blue-bird is a symbol of happiness, but it's a sure thing that bluebird weather is not conducive to any merriment to duck hunters.

If Dame Nature figured on delaying the slaughter of her feathered charges, she succeeded on the first two days of the open season. A swell time to sit in a blind and cogitate, but not to collect a limit of ducks, or coots, or geese.

Considering the dearth of ducks in the air throughout the Bay Area, I believe congratulations are due Frank Gratti, a Marin County nimrod, for his patience in lasting Saturday out and his downing of three bull sprigs. Frank launched his transportation from Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia.

Joe Verviani's report of fishing facts in his locale was rather dismal. He personally pulled a complete blank in a spot where several nice bass had been landed earlier in the week. The one bright spot in Joe's report was the tale of a trio of local anglers, Walter Kozlouski and his two sons. (This is the same trio that came in with a pair of 15-pounders last week off Rat Island). Saturday they came to port with eight bass in the four to six-pound class. One fish was taken across by Buoy 10 and the balance were landed near the Brothers—all on bait.

Trying to get a correct picture of duck hunting locally, I contacted Harry Simon of the Naya Val Resort in Vallejo. Harry reported only one pair of scattergunners had come in by 2 p.m. These hunters reported extremely few birds flying and hardly any shooting being done.

ABOUT THE fishing in that section of the Napa River, Harry Simon did some mild raving over the success being had in his sector. Lots of smalls and mediums and quite a few lunkers. Average around two bass per rod.

Swanton's Harbor at Hastings Slough had a number of hunters (private club members who take their launches out of Swanton's) come in with some ducks, hardly limits but a fair number—mostly mallards — perhaps local birds.

Regarding the fishing in the Suisun Bay reached from Swanton's Harbor, it continues to be very good. A bit over two-fish-per-rod average for each of the 20 rowboats. "Best fish of the week was a 29-pounder taken by A. Fong, fishing in the Suisun Cutoff. Mostly, the fish have been of good size. Quite a few in the 12 to 15-pound class," I was told.

FOR YOUR information, boat launching facilities are to be had at Swanton's Harbor, but no skiffs are rented for duck hunting.

Salmon trolling Saturday and Sunday was fair or excellent according to the area fished, it seems. Some big fish were taken as well as small (but legal) ones.

Prospects for bassing hither and yon are better as the week progresses. Present short tides will be replaced with better flows and better fishing should result. Not, mind you, that fishing is poor right now. It is a long way from that, but it will be definitely better as the tides lengthen.

Deep sea fishing in Monterey Bay, the Farralones area and out of Bodega Bay is about prime at present. Combine plenty of action with this present bluebird weather, and what can beat a day on the "pacific" Pacific?

And that's it for this time, see you later. Goodbye, good luck and go get 'em!

HOLE-IN-ONE TOURNAMENT SET AT SCHOOL

A two-day hole-in-one golf tournament will be held at Terra Linda High School to raise funds for the school's band and for athletic equipment.

Mrs. Lowell F. Edde, publicity chairman, announced that the contest will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and from 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday. Six balls may be hit for $1. A savings bond will be given for the best prize.

Next Opener For Waterfowl To Be Oct. 21

Opening hunting dates on seven state and three federal waterfowl management areas on which public shooting is administered by California's Department of Fish and Game have been announced.

Four of the areas opened Oct. 14, the first day of California's general duck season. The other six will have delayed openings in order that waterfowl may be held undisturbed on them until surrounding crops subject to duck depredations have been harvested.

Following are the opening dates for the 10 areas:

Oct. 14—Grizzly Island, San Luis Wasteway, Imperial (Wister area and Ramer Lake), Honey Lake.

Oct. 21—Los Banos, Mendota.

Oct. 28—Gray Lodge, Colusa, Sutter, Merced.

Shooting days on all of the areas will be Saturdays, Sundays and Wednesdays. An exception is that shooting is permitted every day of the week at Ramer Lake on the Imperial area. An advance reservation system will be in effect again this year on all except the Honey Lake and Ramer Lake areas.

Applications for advance hunting reservations at the other eight areas must be on official, self-addressed, self-sealing forms available from any hunting license agent or any office of the Department of Fish and Game. Reservation applications must be received at the Department of Fish and Game license office in Sacramento at least 10 days prior to the shooting date requested.

Upsetting Wildcats' Coach Tagged With New Title Now

By PAUL MILLER

Coach Harry Moore of the Marin Catholic Wildcats has a new title among Marin sports fans this week: "coach of the year."

After the San Rafael upset (12-10) last Friday, and a shoulder ride off the field in that first game of the league season, Moore's title seems deserving enough.

In that contest, Moore said his troops took advantage of the breaks and came through with the impossible. The one big break was the Bulldogs' loss of a fumbled ball deep in their own territory late in the fourth period with the score 10-6. Moore said later, "I told them (Wildcats) to go for that ball in a tackle no matter how much yardage the Bulldogs picked up on the type of tackle necessary to get the ball." Moore said he noticed that San Rafael carriers were holding the ball out wide.

EASY FOR STEALING

Moore had praise for the entire team, all of whom play every game by Moore's football philosophy. He gave a little extra credit to Dennis Tobin, who said he would rather be a first string guard than a third string quarterback. And a first string right guard he was Friday. Also Wally Lourdeaux, who in addition to tackling well all evening, stopped Bulldog Alan Finley in the final second of play just short of what would have been a winning TD. Tackle John Hassett came in for some glory for his fine replacement job in tackle James Calway's spot. Calway suffered a possible concussion and was hospitalized at Marin General. But he was in good condition Sunday and released.

Up for special honors were quarterback John Jones, end Paul Kruger, halfback Fran Ubhaus, and kicker Paul Brady. The 162 pound senior booted the leather under high pressure circumstances beyond Bulldog safeties twice. Normal backs would have had difficulty getting away a wild pass, let alone a kick.

San Rafael coach Bob Muster stuck up for his Bulldogs: "I thought they played well except for a few basic mistakes." Friday's statistics support the mentor, whose team had been undefeated this season. Finley knocked off five yeards per carry and fullback Mike Shafer, four.

Muster pointed out that Marin took advantage of San Rafael mistakes and the Bulldogs, while they ate up yardage couldn't quite break loose for scoreboard digits. Bulldog quarterback Jack Sovereign—one of the best in the league was suffering from ankle irritations Friday, or he would probably have done the breaking loose.

Muster gave game laurels to Chris Yaeger, Jack Clark, and Denis Nickel, Bulldog linemen.

Coach Bob Franceschini of Sir Francis Drake, is hoping for another performance this week like last when the Pirates belted in a significant win against Redwood High, previously undefeated in MCAL league play and an arch-rival of Drake.

"We really jelled," said the successful mentor. "The defense played their usual game and the offense perked up . . . I'm happy with my boys." One of those "boys" up for special mention by the coach was Ed Bowler, a 160 pound rugged senior guard. Others praised were Tom Kolbe for his hard running, and Hamish Tyler and Rich Bottini for good performances. Franceschini added that his team was "mentally fit and this was the difference."

"Redwood played real good and never gave up once," he added.

Drake suffered one injury in the game. Guard Steve Purcell injured his right shoulder. He was treated at Marin General Hospital and released.

Redwood's Bob Troppmann had similar opinions about Drake's work "I thought Drake played a tremendous game . . . Franceschini really had his athletes up . . . they played like a team possessed.

Troppmann took nothing away from his own team either. "Our offense was adequate. By in large I was satisfied with their performance . . . we just met a better team that night."

The Novato Hornets have scaled what is probably its biggest obstacle, next to San Rafael, in league action by defeating Tam last Saturday. But as Redwood coach Bob Troppmann puts it, this year's league is a "crazy" one. Any opinions are hazardous.

Coach Marlin Olsen of Novato, before the Tam game, told his team that the first quarter, the Indians would "be tough," and from then on it would be the heat with which to contend. He was right. Olsen and his assistant John Panagakis drummed it into the Hornets' heads that it was going to be hot, hot, hot, that they in North Marin practice in heat, and will, with day games be always playing in heat. After all this it may have seemed cool to the Hornets Saturday, but it's doubtful. Tam practices in the refreshing breezes of Mill Valley.

Like San Rafael, Novato switched its offensive attack. While the Bulldogs had run inside against Marin Friday, the Hornets ran outside against Tam Saturday.

Muster said the good defense put up by his men was the key to the win, Tam being held scoreless until the last four minutes of play. Among those Novato defenders pointed out were Dennis McCormick, Ron Heidinger, Martin Baccoglio, and John Cook.

Tam's head coach, Jim Hanretty, said he was "very disappointed" with the loss. He attributed it to his missing first stringers, the weather and "Novato's good football."

Marin Tars Work Against Screen Passing

The College of Marin Tars this week are being drilled in the art of screen pass defense.

After a 20-18 edge out by the University of San Francisco last Friday in the last few minutes of the game on a screen pass, the practice drills were warranted. Offensively head college coach Pick Read said his Tars did not capitalize on scoring opportunities. And while "they moved the ball well," they were plagued by penalties. Their chances to score had been from the university's 25, 6, and 17-yard lines.

"The plays did not click because they were executed improperly," said Read, who felt the Tars should have won.

Individually he was pleased with the Tars' action. College players mentioned were Ron Cole, halfback, who played his "best game yet"; Jim Fisher, halfback of San Rafael; Scott Moriarty, fullback of Sir Francis Drake; Bob Sparrow, quarterback of Novato; Ron Grayson and Jim Sewell, tackles, also of Novato; Bob Whelan, guard of Drake. In the defensive picture, Read praised Bruce Robertson, fullback of San Rafael; Dave Rosso, a guard also of San Rafael, and Rich Todt, guard of Redwood.

Bosox Hurler Don Schwall Voted A.L.'s Top Rookie

NEW YORK (UPI)—Don Schwall, who left the University of Oklahoma in 1957 to sign a $50,000 bonus contract with the Boston Red Sox, was named the American League's rookie of the year today by the United Press International's board of baseball experts.

The 6-foot, 5½-inch, 210-pound right-hander, who had a 15-7 record although he didn't join the Red Sox until May 21, received 16 votes from the 36-man board. Lee Thomas of the Los Angeles Angels was second with seven votes, followed by Dick Howser of the Kansas City A's with six, Chuck Schilling of the Red Sox with four and Floyd Robinson of the Chicago White Sox with three.

Schwall, who maintained a .682 winning percentage despite the Red Sox' sixth-place finish, pitched in 25 games and 179 innings. He yielded 167 hits and 110 walks while striking out 90 batters, pitching 10 complete games and tossing two shutouts.

"He has a pretty good sinker ball and motion," says Red Sox manager Mike Higgins. "He makes the batters hit the ball on the ground because he keeps his stuff low. He has a good temperament and he stays calm when he's in trouble on the mound."

3rd Place Worth $942 To Giants

NEW YORK (AP) — Finishing second and third respectively in the National League brings extra money to members of the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants as shares of the World Series money.

Each Dodger gets $1,340.12 and each Giant $942.54 from the players' pool.

Stanford Stresses Its Ground Attack

STANFORD (UPI) — Stanford Coach Jack Curtice may have a surprise in store for Washington Saturday when his Indians face the Huskies in Seattle.

Curtice put his squad through its longest non-contact drill of the season yesterday with virtually no passing formations. He said the Indians' running attack against San Jose State last week worked so well that the pattern would be kept.

Cal Back Mason May Be Ready For SC Game

BERKELEY (UPI) — Injured University of California halfback John Mason may be back in the lineup Saturday when the Golden Bears take on the University of Southern California here.

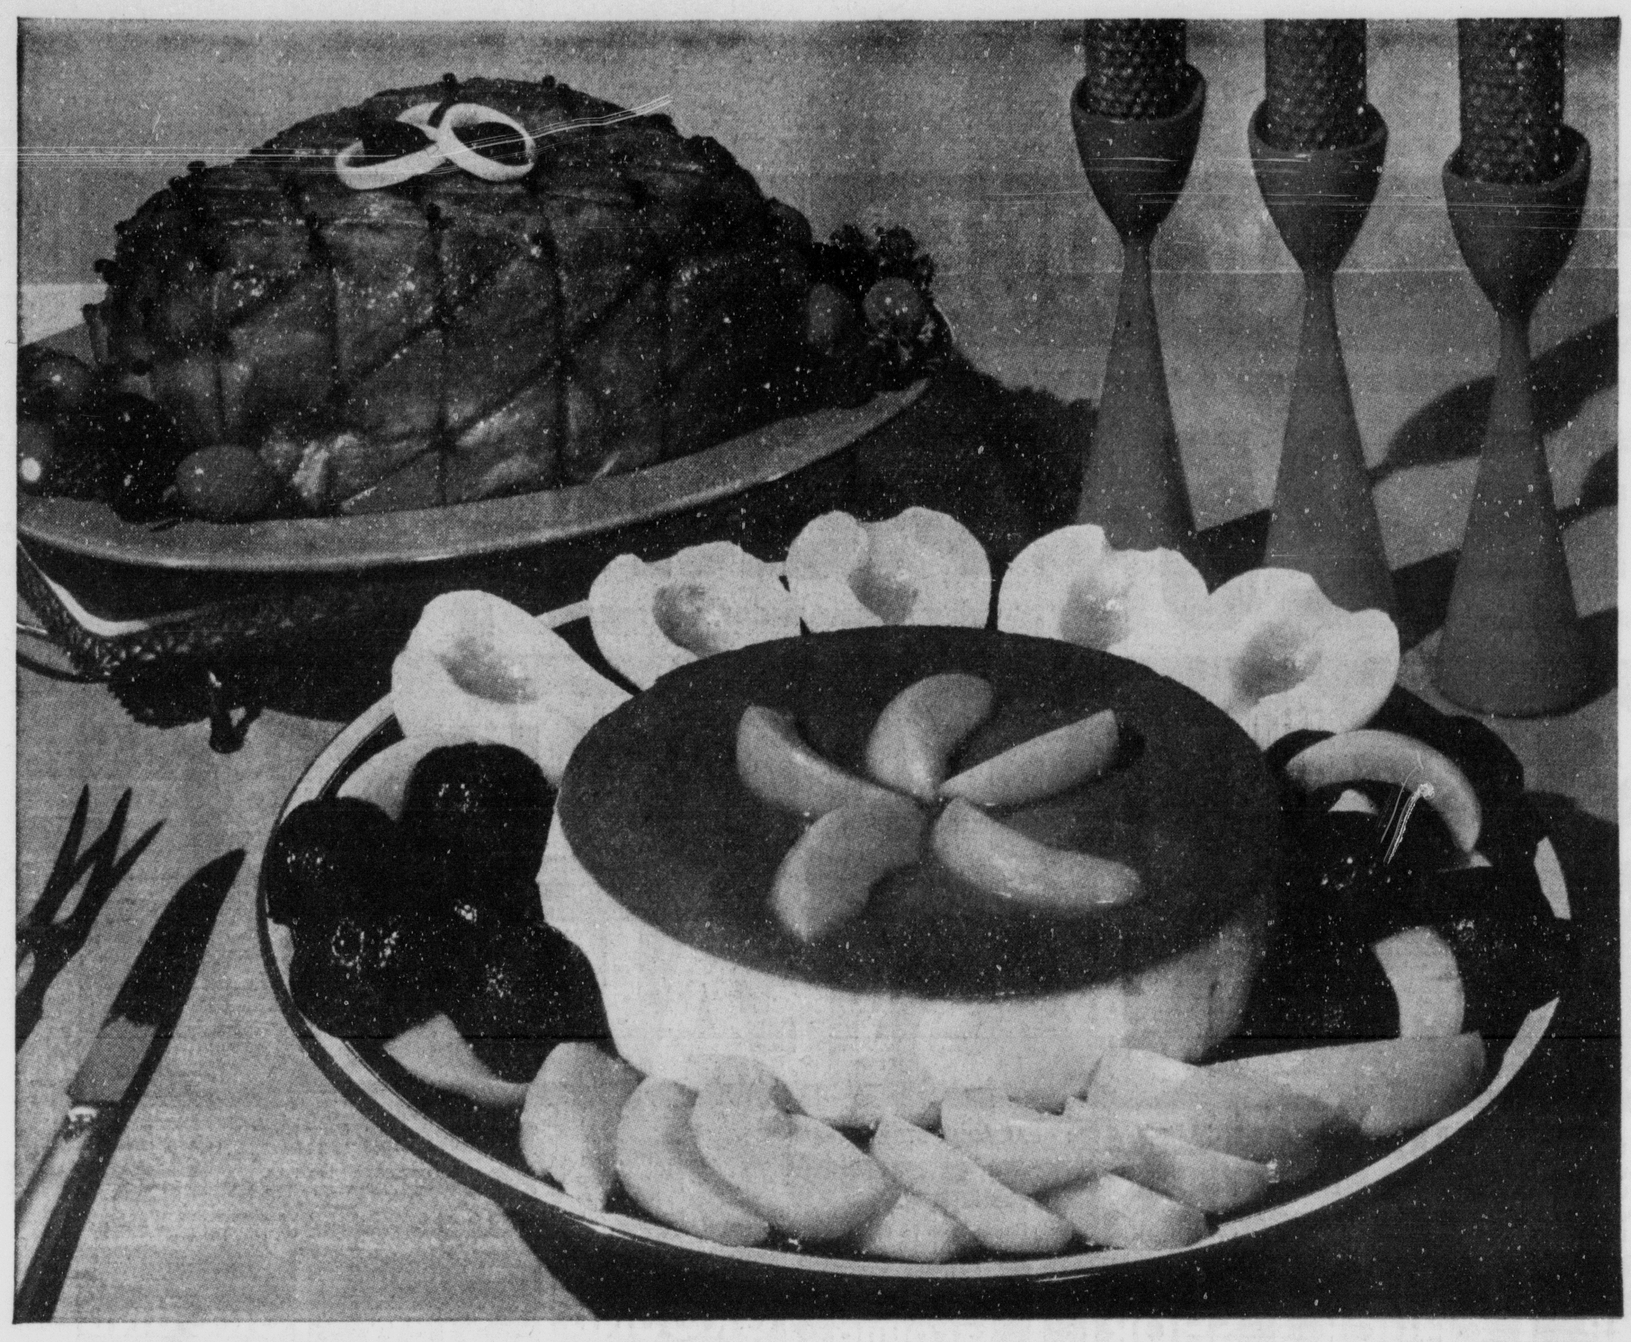
MACY'S SAN RAFAEL, FOURTH AND COURT, GLENWOOD 6-3333, OPEN MONDAY AND FRIDAY 9:30 TO 9; OTHER DAYS 9:30 TO 5:30



DO-AHEAD DINNER—Anyone can make cup custard . . . and anyone can make this handsome Fruited French Caramel Custard. It is the delightful dessert for the do-it-ahead party meal planned for you. Bake the ham the day before the party, at the same time the custard is baking. Keep both in the refrigerator until serving time. The morning of the party make the potato salad, wash green and crisp in the refrigerator and prepare the tomato and green bean casserole.

A Wonderful Do-Ahead Dinner For Hostesses

Take it easy on party day. Let's face it, even a simple dinner party for ten or twelve people is work. This extra good party meal is planned so that most of the preparation can be done the day before, with only a small amount of work needed on party day. The use of convenience foods will further lighten cooking chores. Here is the menu . . . good from beginning to end.

Honey Glazed Ham
Jeanne's Tomato and Green Bean Casserole
Potato Salad on Zippy Greens
Ripe Olives Radishes
Fruited French Caramel Custard
Coffee

We suggest baking the ham the day before the party, at the same time the custard is baking. Keep both in the refrigerator until serving time. The morning of the party make the potato salad, wash greens and put in the refrigerator to crisp, clean radishes and prepare the tomato and green bean casserole. Just pop it in the oven before dinner to heat with no watching.

You will be pleased with this "party pretty-party good" meal. In using canned foods much of the preparation work has been done in the Canner's kitchen and you take it from there.

HONEY GLAZED HAM

1 can (3 to 5 lb. ham
Whole cloves
2 teaspoons dry mustard
⅔ cup honey

Put ham, fat side up, on rack in shallow baking pan. Score in diamond design and insert whole cloves. Mix dry mustard and honey. Pour over ham. Heat in a slow oven (325 degrees) 20 minutes per pound, basting occasionally. Three to four servings per pound.

JEANNE'S TOMATO AND GREEN BEAN CASSEROLE

1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) tomatoes
1 cup packaged seasoned bread dressing
¼ cup butter, or margarine
2 cans (1 lb. each) cut green beans
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
½ teaspoon basil, or oregano

Drain tomatoes. (Save juice for a snack.) Mix bread dressing with melted butter and set aside ⅓ cup for topping. Combine remaining dressing. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) about 35 minutes. Remove cover the last 15 minutes. Ten to 12 servings.

NOTE: Casserole may be combined ahead, stored in refrigerator and baked just before mealtime. Increase baking time to 45 minutes.

POTATO SALAD ON ZIPPY GREENS

1 cup mayonnaise
¼ cup prepared mustard
2 teaspoons seasoned salt
4 cans (1 lb. each) white potatoes
2 medium size onions
1 cup thin sliced celery
8 hard cooked eggs
¼ cup diced pimiento
¼ cup chopped parsley
Bottled Italian dressing
2 qt. crisp salad greens

Mix ½ cup of the mayonnaise, mustard and seasoned salt in a saucepan. Add drained cubed potatoes; heat, mixing gently. Remove from heat. Add remaining mayonnaise, finely chopped onion, celery, coarsely cut eggs, pimiento and parsley; mix lightly. Chill 1 to 2 hours. Add Italian dressing to salad greens, which have been torn in pieces, and toss lightly until greens are coated. Put on serving platter and mound the potato salad in the center. Twelve servings.

FRUITED FRENCH CARAMEL CUSTARD

1 cup sugar
6 cups milk
10 eggs
⅔ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 can (1 lb.) purple plums
1 can (1 lb.) sliced peaches
1 can (1 lb.) pear halves

Put a 2½ quart heatproof boking dish in a low temperature oven to warm. Sprinkle the 1 cup sugar evenly in a heavy 10" skillet. Put over high heat and melt, tilting the pan back and forth to keep the sugar moving. As soon as it is melted and a light golden brown pour into the baking dish and set aside. Scald milk. Beat eggs with the ⅔ cup sugar, salt and vanilla until well blended. Add to the milk, stirring. Pour over the caramel in baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) about 1¾ hours, until an inserted knife blade comes out clean. Cool, then chill overnight. At serving time soften caramel by settting dish in a shallow pan of hot water for a few minutes. Run spatula around custard to loosen. Put serving plate upside down over custard, invert and remove baking dish. Surround custard with chilled drained fruits. If desired, flame the fruit with rum or Kirsch. Ten to 12 servings.

TRY: Canned fruit cocktail or fruits for salad; pineapple, dark sweet cherries and apricots; or blueberries, sliced peaches and figs.

Snacks For After The Big Game

Sandwiches are something special when brown-and-serve rolls are used as their base. Give the rolls a savory filling, pop them into the oven, and they're great to serve to an after-the-game crowd of young people.

We like club rolls used in the following recipe because they add a welcome crunchiness to the soft deviled ham and cheddar cheese filling, but another variety could be used.

Our tasters enjoyed this filling as we give it, but you can make changes if you wish. The onion could be omitted and Worcestershire sauce could be added; if catchup is in the house it might be substituted for the chili sauce.

When these rolls were served at our house at lunchtime, they were offered as fork-and-knife food with a tossed green salad. But if the high-school crowd is going to enjoy them, have plenty of paper napkins on hand and they can be finger food along with carrot and celery sticks.

HAM AND CHEESE ROLLS

6 brown-and-serve club rolls (one 8½-ounce package)
1 can (4½ ounces) deviled ham
¼ pound cheddar cheese (coarsely grated)
2 tablespoons chili sauce
1 tablespoon finely-grated onion (pulp and juice)

Have the rolls (from refrigerator or freezer) at room temperature. Make three evenly spaced lengthwise cuts in each roll but do not slice through the bottom crust. Mix together well the ham, greated cheese (there should be one cup fairly well packed down), chili sauce and onion. Spread roll cuts with ham mixture. Place on foil on cookie sheet or shallow pan (on a rack if you wish) and bake in a hot (400 degree) oven about 10 minutes or until golden-brown. Double or triple recipe for a crowd.

BEVERAGE NOTE

For a high-school crowd, soft drinks may accompany the ham and cheese rolls. Or you can serve hot spiced cider: heat cider with brown sugar, stick cinnamon and whole cloves; serve in heavy mugs or heavy footed glasses. In using the latter, put a silver spoon in each glass as you pour in the hot drink.

Old Time Cake Still Pleases

Tucked away in many memories—with nostalgic delight—are certain foods first tasted in childhood.

Southern recollections of Ambrosia introduced us to that simple but delectable combination of sliced oranges sprinkled with sugar and heaped with snowy mounds of freshly grated coconut.

It was Irma Rombauer in her great "Joy of Cooking," telling in her inimitable way about stirring the Tutti Frutti of her youth that sent us searching out a cylinder-shaped crock in which to make this divine concoction of fresh fruit and brandy.

When apple connoisseurs talk of russets, some of us pine. Was any apple ever sweeter, crisper, jucier and filled with more flavor than that smo- rough-skinned fruit?

The partisans of old fashioned cakes can count us one of their number. Recently we dug out a recipe for the Marguerite Cake that when we were young, we swooned over because its filling was such a rich combination of penuche flavor and plump raisins. When recently we made the cake and offered it to family and friends, again it was acclaimed.

This cake recipe came to my mother in the twenties from a little Canadian cookbook published in Elm Creek, Manitoba. We've never found its particular combination of ingredients duplicated in any other collection of recipes.

MARGUERITE CAKE

1¾ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup firmly-packed light brown sugar
3 tablespoons dark molasses
¾ cup buttermilk
3 large egg whites (reserve yolks for filling)
Raisin filling
Confectioners' sugar

Grease and line with waxed paper two 8-inch round layer-cake pans; grease paper. Sift together the flour and soda. Cream butter and sugar; beat in molasses. Beat in just until smooth each time the flour (in 4 additions) alternately with buttermilk. Beat whites to stiff peaks; fold in. Turn into prepared pans. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven for 25 to 30 minutes, until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool in pans on wire racks for 10 minutes; turn out on racks; remove paper; turn layers right side up. When cold, put layers together with Raisin Filling. Sift confectioners' sugar over the top.

NOTE: No salt is included in this recipe.

RAISIN FILLING

3 egg yolks (reserved from cake)
¾ cup milk
¾ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 cup raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained)
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 tablespoon vanilla

In a heavy saucepan beat egg yolks slightly; add milk; beat to combine. Add sugar, raisins and butter. Cook and stir constantly over medium-low heat until visibly thickened; mixture should look like thin white sauce. Stir in vanilla. Allow to stand until cold; the custard part of the filling should now be thick enough to mound slightly when dropped from a spoon as it is spread over cake.

Try Skim Milk

On a reducing diet? Don't eat heartily before retiring. If you must have a midnight snack, try a cup of hot skim milk.

Giant Apple Pancake A Marvelous Dessert

A giant pancake comes out of the oven! Filled with sliced fresh apples—cooked in butter, sugar and spice—it makes a marvelous dessert for four lucky people.

Chicago glories in these mammoth pancakes. A well-known hotel restaurant in that city makes a specialty of them. So does Chicago's Antoinette Pope School of Fancy Cookery, for you'll find a recipe for the pancake in "The New Antoinette Pope School Cookbook" by Antoinette and Francois Pope (Macmillan). The following recipe was inspired by the Pope version.

GIANT APPLE PANCAKE

1 pound (3 large) tart apples
6 tablespoons butter or margarine
⅓ cup sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
2 large eggs
½ cup milk
½ cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt

Pare, quarter and core apples; cut into thin slices. In a 10-inch iron skillet over low heat cook apples with 5 tablespoons of the butter for about 5 minutes. Mix with the sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg; cover; cook until tender-crisp—about 10 minutes. Turn out of skillet and keep warm. Wash and dry the skillet to have ready for baking the pancake; make sure its handle is resistant to oven heat.

With rotary beater (hand or electric) beat together the eggs, milk, flour and salt until smooth — about 2 minutes. If necessary work out any small flour lumps with flat side of a wide rubber spatula drawn around the sides of the bowl; batter will be thin.

Slowly heat the remaining 1 tablespoon butter in the 10-inch skillet until it melts and the pan is very hot. Pour batter into skillet. Bake in a hot (450 degrees) oven for 15 minutes. As soon as batter begins to puff up in center (in about 3 minutes) puncture it with a long-handled fork; repeat as necessary. Lower heat to moderate (350 degrees) and bake 10 minutes longer or until golden-brown and crisp. (During baking batter will rise along sides of skillet forming a shell.) Loosen pancake sides with a spatula. Spread apple mixture over half of pancake; fold over as for an omelet, remove to serving platter. If pancake is too crisp to fold, spread apple mixture over entire bottom; cut into quarters in skillet; remove in individual portions. Serve at once with extra-fine granulated sugar for sprinkling over the top. Makes 4 servings.

NOTE: The apple filling may be prepared ahead and reheated just before the pancake is ready.

COOKBOOK NOTE

"The New Antoinette Pope School Cookbook" is the latest (1961) edition of the cookbook the Popes first wrote in 1948 and revised in 1953. The present edition contains 600 new recipes and the older recipes have been revised. The book is a worthwhile collection of basic rules, including many from international cuisine, that can be used in preparing everyday meals for a family and special meals for guests. The authors deserve a vote of thanks for the care they have taken in giving detailed recipe directions.

Plums Gain Flavor Poached In Syrup

1½ lbs. large purple plums (Italian prunes)
1 cup each sugar and water
1 tspn. vanilla

Wash plums; cut in half and remove pits. In a 12-inch skillet stir sugar and water over low heat until sugar dissolves; bring to simmering; simmer 5 minutes. Add plums, skin side up. Cook gently for 2 or 3 minutes. Turn plums so skin side is down; cook a few more minutes. (Syrup should be a pretty rose color and plums should be soft with skins adhering.) Cool about 10 minutes, then stir in vanilla. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

IT'S CREPE this year—here discreetly glowing with sequins to make a cocktail dress with the glittering glamor of the Thirties, but strictly 1961 in shape. Designed by Lee Claire, the easy bloused bodice rests at the hipline above a shaft of skirt. The wide cowl neckline merges into an armhole which bares the arms completely in a flattering line.

Tournament Highlights Luncheon

A champagne tournament and candid slides highlighted yesterday's women's luncheon at the Mill Valley Tennis Club.

Winners in the tournament, conducted by co-chairmen Mrs. James E. Rutledge and Mrs. John Laurie, were Mesdames John Barnard and Robert Huber, first flight; and Mesdames James Reeve and Albert Gedman, second flight.

For the program, Marge Rutledge showed slides which she had taken throughout the year of members on the courts and also of events as the ski fashion show, spring tournament, poolside luncheon and junior swim meet. Slides were also shown from the group's recent skit "Swinging On The Courts."

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Richard Clarke, chairman, members discussed plans for a series of duplicate bridge luncheons and named a nominating committee. The committee includes the Mesdames William Hislip, William Breeze, E. E. Crawford, John Murphy, David Stephens, and Mrs. Clarke as outgoing chairman.

Chairman for yesterday's luncheon was Mrs. Robert Ryan. The luncheon committee included the Mesdames Wayne Deatsch, Andrew Castle, Warren Erskine and Paul Scheiner.

Retired Teachers Assn. Planning Card Party

On Oct. 30 at 1 p.m. the Marin Division of the Retired Teachers Assn. will have a card party at the Fairfax Community Church on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Mesdames Genevieve Longley, Clarence Mette, and Ray Shaver, president, are taking reservations. Mrs. Eunice Bradley, hospitality chairman, will serve dessert, assisted by Mesdames Grace Zubler, Alma Zang and Ray Olinger.

CELEBRATING THE HARVEST

Couple Wed At Church In San Anselmo

Chrysanthemums, stock and gladioli decked the altar of the First Baptist Church in San Anselmo for the Oct. 8 wedding of Carmelita Stocker and Chester L. Taylor of San Anselmo.

The bride, the owner of the Carmelita Dance Studios in San Rafael, San Anselmo, and Mill Valley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond James Krausgrill of San Anselmo.

Physical Combat Used On Boys Turns And Backlashes Father

I've been talking with a desperate man. He burst into my office, panting with anxiety. His face was bruised and cut, one eye was shut and his clothes were torn. "My boys," he stammered, "my boys just beat me up. What in God's name can I do now?" Then he sat down and cried, in the wracking way a strong man cries.

I got his story. He loved his children, but believed in instant discipline. Every infraction was punished severely. His wife disagreed. She asked him to be gentler. Her suggestion only made him stricter. The sole basis of control in his family was physical combat.

At first his children took it, and lived with pain. They even admired their tough father and tried to imitate him. Then they came to hate him. As they got older they lived for the day when they could combine forces and beat him up. Today they did it. He tried to whip his 12-year-old boy. His older son interfered. The two warned their dad. He persisted. Then they jumped him. I've rarely seen a man so shattered.

What can he do now? Very little. You can't wipe out years of resentment and fear overnight. The time for him to build a good home was while the children were little. Now it is too late. They'll always hate him.

Friends, how do you control your children? By force alone? I hope not. Love is basic. When punishment is needed, make it mild. Be patient and use your common sense. Remember how you reacted as a child, and be guided accordingly. And don't forget this father. You can profit from his mistake.

Guide For Baby Sitters Is Printed By Camp Fire Girls

Baby sitters need to know more than just how to care for a child. They need to know, for instance, the telephone number of the nearest neighbor. And they should know the layout of the house and location of all exits. There are many other things they should know to do a thorough, safe and enjoyable job of baby sitting.

And parents, as well as baby sitters, will find the new booklet, "Child Care Course," published recently by Camp Fire Girls, Inc., helpful in providing concise and comprehensive facts.

The book is just off the press and was published as a manual for the Camp Fire Girls child care course, along with an "Instructor's Guide to the Child Care Course," and a certificate awarded each girl completing the course. The "Child Care Course" booklet, however, may be ordered by any person, whether connected with the organization or not.

It can be an important permanent reference for all baby sitters and parents of small children. To order, write the Camp Fire Girls, Inc., Supply Division, 450 Avenue of the Americas, New York 11, N.Y., and ask for "Child Care Course" booklet, D-274. The price is $1. The "Instructor's Guide to the Child Care Course" may be purchased for 50 cents and the order number is D-276.

The book is written with a feeling that will inculcate in teen-age girls a sense of responsibility and anticipation that children are fun.

The book gives information needed for all foreseeable situations. Girls are warned not to broadcast to friends where they will be working.

William Young Claims Bride In Ceremony At Berkeley

All Soul's Episcopal Church in Berkeley was the setting for the marriage of Mary Ann Heatherly and William Pitt Young on Oct. 7. Rev. Robert Morse of Monterey officiated. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Chart Richmond in Oakland.

The newlyweds are students at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco. The bridegroom graduated from U.C. at Berkeley after attending Red Bluff High School. At U.C. he belonged to Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh G. Young of San Rafael.

The bride attended the University of California at Berkeley where she belonged to Alpha Chi Omega sorority before entering the School of Nursing. She is the daughter of Mrs. George William Heatherly of Oakland.

Attendants were Mrs. Steven Sorenson (Kathryn Heatherly) sister of the bride, and Michael Bowhay.

After a honeymoon in the Santa Cruz Mountains, they returned to live in San Francisco, where they are continuing their studies.

Bonnie Hubbard's KUPBOARD
FUN WITH FOOD AND HELPFUL HINTS

If you're looking for new tricks to treat your Hallowe'en guests, have penty of NABISCO'S Premium Snow Flake Saltines on hand . . . so crisp, so flavorful, so tangy, with cheese, dips and spreads. Prepare a hot dip of 2 cans tomato sauce, ½ lb. grated cheese, Italian herbs, onion. When the cheese melts, let folks dip party meat balls into it and place on Premium Snow Flake Saltines; watch them smile!

"Pass the pickles, please!" Everybody loves the piquant taste of NALLEY'S Sweet Pickles, so crisp and so beautifully balanced between sweet and tangy. Put a few into the lunchbox to keep noon meals at school interesting, and serve them on the table to brighten everyday menus. Want to add a subtle new flavor to pot roast? Add NALLEY'S Sweet Pickles, diced, while it cooks.

What did we do before the days of aluminum foil? Because—look at all the things REYNOLDS Wrap Foil does . . . how it protects and preserves foods stored in it, safe from other odors . . . how it turns into a cooking utensil, a pot-lid, a container for everything from foods to wet paint brushes. Cook Swiss steak, sealed in REYNOLDS; taste a new, sumptuous flavor.

Want an inexpensive but appealing dish for that P-TA luncheon? This salad utilizes budget-wise WHITE STAR Tuna and the crisp apples which are good buys now. Combine chunk-style or shredded WHITE STAR and diced apples in equal quantities; add diced, hard-cooked eggs (⅓ cup to 1 cup tuna-apple mixture). Toss lightly with Thousand Island dressing over lettuce.

★ Do you want a beautiful hostess apron? Send $1.25 plus label from any Bonnie Hubbard product or facsimile or masthead this column, to Bonnie Hubbard Hostess Apron, Box 62, Los Angeles 51.

Minutes are the most precious possessions in a young mother's life . . . and how fast they slip away! Time-savers are very welcome, and the GERBER 16-oz. Cereals are doubly so—real shopping time-savers; also insurance against a failure in supply. GERBER Mixed Cereal, Rice Cereal and Oatmeal come in this size as well as in the 8-oz. boxes and "Sixes."

A sparkling-clear vegetable oil is a delicious companion to a vegetable salad. CHALLENGE Oil is just such an oil; it mixes amiably with other ingredients, and points up the flavor of greens. It is also a superlative oil for deep-frying or skillet use; because of its lightness it drains quickly, leaving no greasy residue or oily taste. You'll like its price, too!

Man's Best Friend deserves something better than scraps from a table! HOLSUM Dog Food is a complete meal, a convenience food for pets which contains a full-course dinner keyed to canine needs . . . fresh meat, meat products, cooked with vegetables and cereal with added vitamins to keep your pet's fur glossy and his spirits good. Dogs of all breeds enjoy HOLSUM.

Every woman knows that the practical way to buy household bleach is in large containers. But heavy, cumbersome bottles are hard to handle and can be dangerous as well. Happy answer is PUREX Liquid Bleach in its new gallon-size plastic bottle; the sturdy, lightweight flask even sports a handle, to make it easier to lift. When you buy bleach, look for new PUREX.

That's all for now! See you next week!

Novato's Mrs. Lott Vickers To Be Official OES Delegate

By NANCY HARDY

The city of Novato as well as Novato Eastern Star Chapter 609 has been honored by an invitation for Mrs. Lott Vickers to participate in the tri-annual session of the International General Grand Chapter, OES, to be held in Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 4 to 9. Mrs. Vickers will be the official delegate from California.

The invitation came as a result of her attendance at the homecoming of the most worthy grand matron Juanita Killion at Gutherie, Okla., in 1958, also, from her many Masonic affiliations.

She has served as an officer for eight years. She is a member of the Daughters of the Nile Temple of Oakland and the Daughters of the Nile Club of Santa Rosa, the Social Order of Beausiant Ladies Auxiliary of the Knights Templar in Auburn, and the order of the White Shrine in Petaluma. She served as president of the Redwood Empire Assn., OES, in 1958.

Mrs. Vickers will complete her year as worthy matron of the Novato Eastern Star on Nov. 9. A farewell party was given for her and for worthy patron Lewis Carleson Thursday.

Band Singer Heads Team

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The voice development Irene Day acquired as featured singer with Gene Krupa's band is helping her in another field.

Now the wife of bandleader Charlie Spivak, Irene is manager of a South Miami Khoury League baseball team.

Whereas she once had "to belt it out to get above the dums," now Irene belts out instructions to the youngsters on her team.

Spivak had been asked to manage the team, which includes their son Chuck, 7. Unable to fit the job in his busy schedule, Spivak turned it over to Irene.

"What I knew about the game you could put in a thimble," Irene admits. "But boy, this summer I learned. I can even keep a scorebook — hits, runs, errors."

Meadow Park School Plans Carnival Time

Oct. 31 from 5 to 9 p.m. will be the time for Meadow Park School's Halloween Carnival at Hamilton Air Force Base, when pony rides, cake walks, costume competitions and games will be offered to youngsters and parents.

Cafeteria service will be available during the dinner hour for the P-TA sponsored carnival. M/Sgt. Bernard J. Faulkner, chairman, is collecting donations of white elephants, records, games and books to be sold in the booths.

West End P-TA Bridge Series Set

First of a series of bridge parties to raise money for the West End School Parent-Teacher Assn. scholarship fund will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the home of Mrs. A. J. Brinckerhoff, 20 Edgewood Way, San Rafael.

Succeeding parties will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Willard Vernon, 3 Idlewood Place; Oct. 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Douglas Godfrey, 144 Center Street, and Oct. 25 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Bolt, 55 Culloden Park. Those attending should take their own cards or other games, said Mrs. Louis Yuvan of 20 Fairhills Drive, with whom reservations may be made.

Foil Growth

Many house plants grow crooked in reaching for light. A small screen of aluminum foil behind the plan will reflect light and help keep the stalk in a straight line.

Ray Hornbys Send Invitations For Black Tie Dinner Dance

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Invitations have been issued by the Raymond Hornbys of Del Mesa to a dinner dance at San Francisco Golf Club Oct. 28. About 120 guests have been invited to the black tie affair. Jane Hornby says the party will be a belated celebration of the Jane Bruer-Raymond Hornby twentieth wedding anniversary. Jane and Ray were married at St. Brigid's Church, San Francisco. The wedding reception was the

THE BANKERS have taken over. There are about 9,000 bankers and their wives in San Francisco for the 87th annual convention of the American Bankers Association. Last night the Russell G. Smiths of Ross entertained a group of 12 of the visitors at a dinner at the Villa Taverna, San Francisco. They went on to the events at the Civic Auditorium. Among those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Welch of New Haven, Conn and the Hugh Frasers and Mills Lanes of Atlanta, Ga.

The Smiths and the Henry Draths have been attending a number of social functions attendant on the convention. The Draths entertained at a cocktail party at their home in Kent Woodlands Thursday night and at a dinner at the Fleur de Lys. Guests of honor were Roderigo Gomez, president of the Bank of Mexico, and his wife. They were returning from Vienna where he had attended the International Monetary Conference. With them was their niece, Eleanor Martinez. They were in the Bay Area to enroll their daughter in Sacred Heart Convent. The Dudley Millers of Ross were also guests of the Draths.

During the recent International Industrial Conference in San Francisco, Russ and Gladys Smith, the Draths and Miss Louise Boyd entertained delegates in their homes. The Draths had as their dinner guests Frank T. Mitchell, New York banker, and his wife, H. Neil Mellon, Dallas, Texas, one of the outstanding men in his city, Louis Latopi of Mexico City, and Mrs. Clare Hoffman of San Francisco.

TWO VACATIONS have been enjoyed by the Alfred Wilseys of Kent Woodlands who are just back from Hawaii. Before that they were in Europe. They flew to Honolulu where they spent several days then flew to Kauai where they stayed at the Hanalei plantation.

On the European tour, Al and Lorrie took their four children, Susan, Mike and Lad Wilsey and Ron Gaviati. They were away for 11 weeks flying to New York where they sailed on the Italian liner, Leonardo Da Vinci, to Gibraltar. They bought two cars and had a driver for both, forming a "sort of caravan," Lorrie said. The children in one car and Al and Lorrie in the other, toured Spain, Italy, France, Switzerland, Austria and Germany. They returned to France and spent some time in Paris and had the cars shipped home from La Havre. They flew to Copenhagen, London, and from there back to San Francisco.

Marin's Taxes Are Not Out Of Line In The Bay Area

Every once in a while something comes up to make us a little less dissatisfied with Marin County taxes.

This time, it was a survey published by the Council of Economic Research in San Mateo County. Among other things, the survey quoted the tax rates in the Bay Area counties for fiscal 1960-61.

These tax rates aren't the basic county taxes. They are the average taxes in the county. Included the the county tax, city tax, school and special district taxes all averaged together. Here's what they are:

Alameda $9.11 per $100 assessed valuation; Contra Costa $8.52, San Francisco $8.41, San Mateo $8.50, and Marin $7.96.

Oh yes, you say, Marin may have the lowest rate, but the tax rate doesn't tell the whole story. How about the assessed value?

We looked up the State Board of Equalization's figures on the assessment ratios in the five counties that year. This is what we found:

Alameda assessed at 23.4 per cent of actual sale value; Contra Costa 21.5 per cent; San Francisco 23.2 per cent; San Mateo 21.1 per cent and Marin 21.2 per cent.

Not only did Marin County have the lowest tax rate of the five counties, but it had a lower assessment rate than three of the others and only one tenth of one per cent higher than the fourth.

If the Marin assessment ratio were to be raised to the average of the others, the rate would decline still further, making the tax rate look still better in comparison with the other counties.

Too long have we allowed loose fiscal talk to deride the "high taxes" of Marin County. It's time we stopped this sort of thing. If your tax bill is high it's because the property you own is so valuable. It's not because the tax rate is out of line—it isn't. It's not because the assessment ratio is out of line—it isn't.

It's because Marin County is so marvelous and so many people are willing to pay more to own property here.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

RESPECT THEIR RIGHT TO KNOWLEDGE

There are now 5 million children going to school in Arabic-speaking countries, twice as many as there were 10 years ago. But this is still only one-third of the children of school age.

An inquiry carried out in 10 Middle Eastern countries discloses the most pressing problem as "shortage of qualified teachers."

Secondary school, for example, in Iraq, will have 235,000 students within the next 5 years. This calls for the training of 850 teachers a year. As things now stand however, they will get only 300 a year.

The demands of educating "all God's children" seem never-ending, difficult and almost disheartening, but don't lose courage, for few works are closer to the heart of Christ than the intellectual and spiritual education of the young.

You may not be able to do much for education in far-off lands, but you can serve the Lord well by strengthening the schools in your own district.

"I will give you understanding, and I will instruct you in this way, in which you shall go." (Psalms 31:8)

Shed Your light and love, O Holy Spirit, on all those who hunger for the fullness of truth.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Columnist Gets Kind Of Puffed Up With Name In New Dictionary

NEW YORK (AP)—I can see my high school English teachers getting the news now.

"You mean to tell me," says the first one, "that Harold Boyle, that big-eared little boy who always came to class in his tennis shoes, is quoted twice in the new unabridged dictionary?"

"I know it sounds impossible, but it's true," says the second. "This is the blackest day for literature since William Shakespeare died."

But there in bright clear print—both on page 224 under "black-and-white" and on page 295 under "bum"—was the defining quote "black-and-white world where a guy is either your pal or probably a bum.—Hal Boyle."

"Oh," I replied, "the editors decided to modernize the dictionary. So they threw out some of the explanatory phrases of a bunch of old mossback writers like J. Milton and Alex Pope, and replaced them with new quotes from 14,000 contemporary notables."

Actually, I'm in a pretty classy crowd. Among the other "contemporary notables" are such renowned literary figures as Willie Mays, Ethel Merman, Ted Williams, and Dina Shore.

They also managed to find room for quotes by Mickey Spillane, Winston Churchill, Douglas MacArthur, W. Somerset Maugham, and Ernest Hemingway.

The new unabridged dictionary is the first new edition in 27 years, cost 3.5 million dollars to prepare and has 450,000 entries, including 100,000 new terms.

"It doesn't really leave you much to live for, does it?" jeered a second.

BUT I'LL TELL you how it felt. To a boy who started throwing newspapers at the age of 10 and has loved words all his life, being quoted in the dictionary was like—well, it was like one who, lost in a wilderness, looks up and sees an airplane, and suddenly the airplane writes his name in giant letters against the eternal blue sky, and the letters hang there, fadeless and fine.

THERE'S ONLY one thing wrong. The dictionary costs $47.50. That's a lot of money—even for a "contemporary notable."

Why Taxes To Save Adenhauer

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Khrushchev's proposals to end the Berlin war danger, as printed in the Oct. 12 issue of the I-J, appear reasonable.

Why should we be taxed beyond endurance or lose our heads to save Andehauer's face or the face of some other politician.

Shoot Missiles Get It Over With

Independent-Journal:

I think the way the United States deals with the Soviet Union is ridiculous. To back up my statement, I shall refer to our present policy and to the threatening order of past events.

Our present policy concerning the Russians can be termed as "containment," in other words, confining communism and Russian influence to their present holdings.

This obviously isn't working, and I can put down Laos and Africa as two examples. Also, we make all kinds of treaties and agreements with them, only to have them broken by one or another when it becomes inconvenient to continue to abide by them. The latest example of this is the Soviet resumption of atomic blasting and nuclear testing.

As far as the eventual outcome of this cold war is concerned, I think that the ominous history of the Twentieth Century so far can stand as a prediction of the future. If you recall, the years before the first and second world wars were composed of treaties, alliances, summit meetings, conferences, foreign visits, threats, and protests from pacifists and religious groups.

Judging by the similarity between the present day cold war and the order of events preceding the world wars . . . the logical conclusion can only be major outbreak of war . . .

Many qualified people, scientists and so on, say that the United States is still ahead of the Soviet Union in weapons of war, and that even if Russia is still behind, they are progressing at a faster clip than we are. If the predicted war delays very long, at Russia's rate of scientific advancement, they will be far ahead of the United States at the time. This is what we fear and try to prevent, but all we accomplish is the stalling of the coming war.

My alternative to our present policy is much like certain aspects of Barry Goldwater's, which can be summarized, "be quicker on the draw." If Russia breaks a treaty, invades a country politically, or something else they are able to do, we should announce our position in the matter, and fairly and squarely put forth our proposition on what should be done about it.

If Russia doesn't yield, shoot the missiles and get it over with.

If this way we take the first offensive move, which, in a war of weapons of this great dimension, would be devastating. In this way we could get rid of the thorn in our side.

Since this will eventually happen anyway, perhaps with Russia pushing the first buttons, why sweat it out any longer? I think that this communism vs. capitalism should come to a crisis soon, or it will spell disaster for the United States.

Marin Can Be L.A. Hodge-Podge

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Once again the school bonds were defeated in Berkeley. Is it possible that one of the reasons for this continued defeat is the lack of school-age children? Is Berkeley's popution primarily composed of apartment or multiple unit dwellers — retired couples, single people living in small city flats who because they are not personally affected resent paying additional school taxes?

If this be the circumstance for the school bonds' continued defeat, is it not probable that the same deplorable situation will exist on the Tiburon Peninsula in about 10 years if the Tiburon master plan continues to be broken by outrageous spot zoning that is being attempted all over the area?

If Tiburon changes from a charming single family unit area—as the master plan has promised, into a multiple unit bedroom for San Francisco, then as far as school bonds are concerned, "There will be trouble in River City."

The issue has arisen once again with the application to rezone the 100 acre Denton Tract in the hills immediately above Bel Aire School near Alto Wye. If the commission agrees to change the master plan and allow multiple unit housing as opposed to single dwelling homes, Blackfield Drive will become overloaded, the Tiburon Highway, already overloaded, will become congested and the entire residential area will become hazardous for the school children.

If the pressure from speculators not especially interested in local problems continues and the master plan is constantly broken with devious spot zoning techniques, the day will come when not only the Tiburon Peninsula, but all of "Marvelous Marin" will lose its rural charm and those of us who have moved to this area to escape the fate of our less fortunate brethren will find that all the hopeful promises of the past becoming empty and hollow in the future. If the big developers have their way here, Marin can conceivable become a hideous hodge-podge similar to L. A.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A clothier was bemoaning the dearth of business in his establishment. "Monday," he mourned, "we hit what I thought was an all-time low. We sold exactly one suit. But Tuesday was worse. We didn't sell anything at all. And Wednesday was even worse than that."

"If you sold nothing at all on Tuesday," objected his companion, "how could Wednesday be even worse?"

"On Wednesday," explained the clothier, "the man who had bought the suit on Monday returned it for credit."

Herb Stein relays a story about a weirdie who wandered into a psychiatrist's office and stuffed tobacco into his left ear. "Obviously you need me," said the doctor. "I sure do," agreed the man. "Got a match?"

"One thing you must say for people today," admits Frank Morris. "They're willing to do a day's work. But they want a week's pay first."

Young Strangers In Foreign Land Have One Other Who Understands

Rather suddenly, I seem at last to have pulled myself out of childhood. But gazing about, it appears I've landed in second childhood.

As a child I was interested in grown-ups, so-called. It is part of the usual irony that our city editor has just given me a pair of assignments involving youngsters.

Let it not be said that he picked the wrong guy to check up on Sonaya Hebert, 6, of Mill Valley, and Kiyotoshi Ushino, 13, of San Rafael. I identified with them wonderfully and in more ways than one.

BOTH ARE, I think, smarter than I ever was. But we had resemblance as strangers in a strange land, getting along because the natives were friendly.

Outstanding about all of us were these two facts: Each was glad to be in a foreign country, and the people of that country were giving all the help possible.

Most of my allegedly mature life has been spent in lands other than my own. If on the whole I got along pretty well it was due more to others than myself, probably not true in the cases of smart Sonaya and Kiyo.

Sonaya, a young lady from Korea, was adopted by Marin Americans. She was just plain lucky and let's face it. But she has built on her luck in the most ardent, individual, rough-and-tumble way imaginable.

IT WAS KIYO's own parents who brought him from Japan. But certainly he owes a big part of his fine send-off at the Davidson School to the fact that the whole student body and faculty seems captivated by him, eager to make him a full 100 per cent American as soon as possible. It won't be long.

Of course I never set out to become a Japanese, a Chinese or a Filipino. But I can testify that the stranger was mostly treated mighty well.

It tickled my recollection when I heard how young Kiyo, starting home from his first day of school without a word of English, blundered aboard the wrong bus. My bet is that a lot of eager help went into the finally successful rescue, restoring him to friends and family.

Back in the spring and summer of 1923, riding the trams of Tokyo was an experience I'll never forget. I was trying to speak Japanese, but not a single Japanese knew it.

Consulting a bit of paper in my pocket, I'd painfully enunciate some such word as "Uchisaiwai-cho!"

THOUGH I THOUGHT I was mentioning a well known street intersection, the conductor would assume a grave look and gaze on me uncomprehendingly. Japanese fellow-passengers would swarm about, jabbering. I would repeat the word, time after time.

As a rule some Japanese would push through and profess knowledge of English. Carefully he would explain that these ignorant Japanese spoke only Japanese.

"But I'M SPEAKING JAPANESE!" I would bellow. "Uchisaiwai-cho!"

At last light would penetrate. All about me the chorus would go up——"Uchisaiwai-cho!" It sounded to me like what I'd been saying all along, but to them it sounded different. Everybody became happy, anyhow.

IN TIME I discovered that when a foreigner essays to speak Japanese he must preface his utterances by the phrase "Anno-ne!" What this means is, to all intents and purposes from a foreigner, "I shall now try my humble best to speak Japanese." This made people pay attention.

Everywhere I blundered in subsequent years of wandering the world was a repetition of the lesson I learned at first in Japan, many times over.

The good people of the world know no boundary, national or racial. They're all mighty fine and helpful at heart.

'Khrushchev Wall' Must Come Down If Free Men Speak Up

WASHINGTON—"The wall must come down."

These are the staunch and stirring words of West Berlin Mayor Willy Brand who fought tyranny under Hitler and is unafraid to fight a tyranny imposed by Khrushchev.

The wall to which Brandt refers is the "Khrushchev Wall"—the wall of concrete and mortar and barbed wire—which on Aug. 13 last the Kremlin erected in the dark hours of the night to imprison the whole population of East Germany.

THIS IS NOT a cry of anguish and despair. These are not words of gasping hopelessness. This is a call to boldness and to our will to resist. These are words of determination which deserve to be heard round the world.

The erection of the "Khrushchev Wall" was not an act of strength and confidence. It was an act of weakness and fear. It is a real and ruthless wall—but it need not possess the power of permanence.

The man who says it must come down has the credentials of past great deeds. Willy Brandt was told that it was foolish and futile to think that the tyranny of Hitler could be brought down. But with others, Willy Brandt resisted and resisted and in the end it was the resistance, not the tyranny, which prevailed.

"THE WALL MUST come down." It can come down and will come down if those who are determined to live in freedom reject it totally, resist it totally and never at any time under any circumstance for any reason give it the title of acceptance.

We should be as aware, as Khrushchev is, that the fifth anniversary of the Hungarian revolution comes at the moment when the free world faces its greatest challenge over Berlin. The brave and undying spirit of the Hungarian freedom fighters tell us much about the Kremlin's act of fear on Aug. 13 on the East Berlin border.

The "Khrushchev Wall" is the most revealing sign and symbol of the Soviet Union's uncertain hold upon its Eastern European satellite empire. It is proof of ruthless determination, but it is also proof of the instability which prevails throughout most of Eastern Europe.

There is no doubt a consuming fear in the Kremlin of another Hungary. The fear of such a revolt in East Germany forced Khrushchev to authorize the wall to stem the stampede of escapees and equally important to destroy the hope of freedom in Eastern Europe.

The Soviet Union after 15 years of the joys of Communism has to jail 16,000,000 people to keep them from fleeing their homeland.

THE "KHRUSHCHEV Wall" challenges the conscience of the world. The first step is to call upon the United Nations to uphold "The right of people to leave a state where there is no freedom and where they do not wish to live."

"The wall must come down," says Mayor Brandt.

Let us help him. The first step is for the free men everywhere to speak up.

U.S. Patent System Is Celebrating Its 125th Birthday Anniversary

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A tribute to Yankee ingenuity and persistence begins today with ceremonies marking the 125th anniversary of the American patent system.

More than three million patents have been issued under the Patent Act of 1836. Better mousetraps—and other things—now are receiving government licenses at the rate of 50,000 a year.

"Encouragement of invention is essential to the continued economic and technological development of this nation," President John F. Kennedy declared in his proclamation for "American Patent System Week."

The Commerce Department said about 1,500 scientists, educators, businessmen and lawyers are expected to take part in the three-day celebrations which begin here today. Undersecretary of Commerce Edward Gudeman was to deliver the keynote address and Rep. Emilio Daddario (D-Conn.), chairman of a House patents subcommittee was scheduled to give a luncheon speech on "inventions for space explorations."

However, all is not running smoothly on the down-to-earth side of the patent world.

One problem arises from the controversy over who is entitled to patents resulting from contracts the government gives to private industry. Defense contractors generally grant the government a royalty-free license for use of inventions stemming from research and development contracts. But critics say the policy compels one company to divulge its know-how to another firm which may land a government contract for the same item.

Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman of a Senate subcommittee on patents, last week said his group will draft legislation "to resolve the protracted controversy."

A second problem is the high turnover among the office's 1,000 examiners. About 200 leave each year, partly due to poor working conditions and low pay, according to patent commissioner David Ladd.

Also, the science of handling patent applications isn't keeping up with modern technology. It takes about twice as long to process an application as it did 30 years ago. Ladd said he is looking towards the perfection of an electronic system to scan the vast files to help determine whether an inventor has come up with a proposal that is really new.

To the inventor, the decision is important because the patent is a grant allowing him to "exclude others for a limited time from making, using or selling his invention in this country." Patent rights run 17 years.

The Constitution says the patent system is important to the nation "to promote the progress of useful arts." Protection of inventors' rights began in 1790 with the patent-issuing authority going to a board of the secretary of state, secretary of war and attorney general.

The Patent Office was established in 1836. The present numbering system was started at that time with patent number one going to Sen. John Ruggles of Maine for a locomotive steam engine.

Planning Committee Will Continue

The San Geronimo Valley Master Plan Committee will continue in existence to study zoning of already developed areas now that the master plan for new development has been adopted, according to committee secretary Stanley R. Frederick.

The committee, which formerly met on the second Wednesday of the month, will now meet on the third Thursday in the Woodacre Improvement Club at 8 p.m.

California Court Aide Appointed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Ralph N. Kleps, the legislature's lawyer for 11 years has been appointed administrative director of California courts.

The appointment of Kleps to the $25,200-a-year post was announced by Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson.

Kleps, 47, of Davis, has served as legislative counsel since 1950, drafting bills and advising lawmakers on the law. The legislature will elect a successor to the $22,050-a-year job.

In the new post, created by a vote of the people in 1960, Kleps will assist the State Judicial Council and the courts in streamlining and speeding operations of the judicial system.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 18, the 291st day of the year with 74 to follow in 1961.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1767 in Aquyun the boundary between Maryland and Pennsylvania, popularly called the Mason-Dixon Line, was finally settled, based on computations by two English astronomers, Charles Mason and Jeremiah Dixon.

In 1867, at ceremonies marking the formal transfer of Alaska from Russia to the United States, the Russian flag was lowered in front of the governor's residence in Sitka and the U. S. flag was raised.

In 1892, the first commercial long-distance telephone line was opened between New York and Chicago after messages were exchanged between the mayors of the two cities.

A thought for today: St. Thomas Aquinas said: "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: To know what he ought to believe; to know what he ought to desire; and to know what he ought to do."

TIME AND TIDE

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

—Just Ask Him All About It 'Unlucky' Player Loses Finesses

BRIDGE—Wednesday-18 ....

Strangely enough there is no such thing as a lucky bridge player. If a player is unsuccessful, he is obviously unlucky; if he is successful, he owes nothing to luck. He will tell you so himself.

Opening lead — ♠ J

When this hand was played in a rubber bridge game, South won the first trick with the king of spades and tried the diamond finesse. It was unlucky. East won with the king of diamonds and knocked out the ace of spades.

South led another diamond, but the suit broke very badly. Very unlucky.

Now declarer had to try the club finesse. That lost. And West had the presence of mind to take the rest of the spades, defeating the contract.

A very unlucky hand, since all the finesses were sure to lose. What can you do but weep a bitter tear and hope for better days?

NO TEARS: A lucky player doesn't have to shed tears about such a hand. At the second trick he leads a heart to dummy's ace and returns a club for the finesse.

If the club finesse happens to work, our lucky hero will run the clubs and then try the diamond finesse. Even though the club finesse loses, he still has four clubs, two spades, two hearts and one diamond.

Isn't it lucky to count your tricks and tackle the right suit first!

DAILY QUESTION: Partner opens with one notrump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes. You hold:

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two clubs, the Stayman Convention. If partner bids two hearts you will raise to three or four, depending on how aggressive you like to be on borderline hands. If partner bids two spades or two diamonds, you can pass and feel satisfied that the contract is safer than one notrump.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Aspirin Controversy: Cause Of Bleeding?

NEW YORK (UPI)—The newest scientific-test word in the great aspirin controversy is that America's best-loved pill can cause internal bleeding but the amounts of blood lost internally are not nearly enough to be threatening — provided the aspirin-taking is moderate.

Drs. Richard M. Watson and Richard N. Pierson, Jr., of St. Luke's Hospital, New York, did their newest experimenting with people who are the most endangered by any kind of bleeding. These are people required to take drugs to keep their blood in non-clottable condition.

First, and with precise measurements, they established the amounts of spontaneous, barely detectable internal bleeding which occurred in these 17 men and women ranging in age from 31 to 85—and which occurs also in persons who are in good health.

Then the 17 took two aspirin tablets four times a day for three days and the measurements were repeated. In statistical terms, the mean internal blood loss of the group was increased by two and one-half "standard deviations." Since the original amounts were extremely tiny, this was not considered a dangerous increase.

The same scientists previously had conducted identical tests in 131 healthy volunteers. Their routine internal blood loss was smaller than that of the 17 ill persons who were required to take an anti-coagulant drug daily.

But the mean increase in blood loss in these healthy volunteers after they had taken eight aspirin tablets daily for three days also was two and one-half "standard deviations."

Therefore, the scientists said, aspirin did not add to the hazards of persons taking anti-coagulants.

However, aspirin seems to have some effect on the ability of the blood to coagulate although so far they haven't pinpointed it, they said in reporting to the American Heart Association.

The coagulability of the blood of the 17 was naturally checked daily while they were taking aspirin. In some the aspirin seemed to enhance the power of the anti-coagulant drug. In order to keep the blood at a fixed point of non-coagulability the dose of the anti-coagulant drug had to be lowered.

More and more people are taking the anti-coagulant drugs regularly for long periods of time, the scientists said. The drugs are useful. When arteries are "hardened" and blood flow somewhat impeded, they safeguard against clot formations which could trigger a heart attack or stroke.

Because there is much scientific uncertainty as regards aspirin and internal bleeding, many physicians who prescribe anti-coagulants forbid their patients to take aspirin under any circumstance. This was why Watson and Pierson experimented—and with more aspirin per person than the average person ever takes.

Graduation Set For Inmates At Prison's School

Diplomas will be awarded to more than 200 San Quentin Prison inmates during graduation exercises at the institution's Bayview High School on Friday at 7:30 p.m.

During the ceremonies, 99 elementary, 58 vocational and 31 high school diplomas will be awarded.

This 1961 graduating class will bring the total elementary school diplomas awarded to nearly 5,000 and will top the 600 mark in the number of inmates who have received high school diplomas since the school's founding in 1949, according to Principal Norman H. McCollom.

Joyrider Damages Synagogue Walls

A joyrider took a forklift for a spin during the weekend and caused an estimated $1,000 damages to the walls of a new synagogue of Congregation Rodef Sholem which is going up on North San Pedro Road in Santa Venetia, sheriff's deputies reported.

Leonard L. Miller, superintendent on the job, told Sheriff's Deputy Harold Goerndt that the vandal had hotwired the forklift and had run it against a wall of freshly laid bricks. Lesser damages were caused to the cement mixer and to scaffolding.

Miller told the officer the exact amount of the damage could not be ascertained until an engineering study and appraisal is made. However, the damage may amount to one thousand dollars or more.

Mill Valley Chamber Gets New Assistant

Jackie Hoetger, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoetger of 8 Homestead Avenue, Mill Valley, has been employed as office assistant at the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce.

The position comes under the work experience-education program of the Tamalpais Union High School District, according to chamber secretary-manager Granville L. Beedle. Miss Hoetger, a senior at Tamalpais High, attends morning classes and works at the chamber from 1 to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Play Planned At Dominican

The Dominican College Troupers have begun rehearsing for their Oct. 29 and 30 performances of Lillian Hellman's adaption of "The Lark."

The play will be presented for the public at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 29 and at 8:15 p.m. Oct. 30 in Angelico Hall on the Dominican campus in San Rafael.

The two-act drama, translated from the work of French playwright Jean Anouilh, will be directed by Sister Mary Cyril, O.P., head of the college drama department.

'61 Pontiac $2595
Here's a rare car on the used market. Almost a current new car. In fact Pontiac dealers are asking around $3,200 for these new where they have them in stock. This is a Catalina club coupe with hydramatic, radio, heater, tires and all the extras.

'60 Chevrolet $1995

'59 Buick $2095

'57 Buick $1095
An unusually clean hardtop special Riviera coupe that we sold new in '57 to its only owner. Just over 40,000 miles. Arctic white with absolutely like new green interior. Radio, heater, dynaflow and many other extras. Nicest '57 we've had in months.

'57 Cadillac $2095

'61 BUICK
CONVERTIBLE
$3395
Here's a '61 Buick LeSabre that's as close to brand new as you can find. Mr. Stenstrom's daughter has driven this convertible only since August and put just over 1,000 miles on it. 1,331 to be exact).
It's an all arctic white convert. with white nylon top and red leather interior. It's fully equipped with power steering, power brakes, Dynaflow, radio, heater, w/w tires and the works.
This car has never been licensed and the purchaser will be the only owner of record. The car carries a Buick new-car one-year warranty. You can't tell this car from a new one.

Auto Association Bid Is Awarded

A contract for construction of a district office building for the California State Automobile Assn. has been awarded to R. E. Murphy and Son, San Rafael general contractors.

The firm's bid of $92,863 was the lowest of six bids. The 5,000 square foot building will be located on the south side of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Greenbrae near the Bon Air Shopping Center. Construction is scheduled to start immediately, according to architect George Banning.

Peter Cooper started a lasting trend in 1830 when he built a rocking chair with a frame of bent metal.

Halloween Parade Slated For Mill Valley Children

Sack races, dart games and apple dunking will be part of the fun at the Mill Valley Halloween parade for children to be held Oct. 31 at Lytton Square, chairman William E. Lovvorn said today.

The parade will start at the square at 7:15 p.m., wind around Throckmorton Avenue to Blithedale Avenue, down Sunnyside Avenue to Miller Avenue, and back to the square.

Youngsters will be judged for the prettiest, most original and funniest costumes and prizes will be given. Youngsters from primary to the eighth grade, must be at the square by 7:15 in costume. Lovvorn said.

The parade and following game session is sponsored by the City of Mill Valley and will have police, firemen and Mill Valley Parent - Teacher Assn. representatives to supervise. Refreshments will be served to the youngsters.

Tam Adult School Has 941 Enrolled

Nine hundred forty-one students are enrolled in the fall quarter of the Tamalpais High School District Adult School, Principal Harry G. Russell reported today.

The enrollment is 120 more than at the same time last year. There are 34 classes, 14 on the Tamalpais High campus in Mill Valley and 20 at Drake High in San Anselmo. Only one class, in underwater safety, was canceled this quarter because of insufficient enrollment, Russell said.

A six-week class in individual and family survival, sponsored by the federal government, was concluded with an enrollment of 35. The course may be offered again at Drake High School beginning next month, Russell said.

Chamber Given Rubbish Problem

Mayor John F. McGinnis of San Rafael has suggested that the matter of beer cans and other unseemly sidewalk sweepings be "dumped in the lap of the Chamber of Commerce retail merchants committee."

Councilman Louis H. Baar reported unhappily at Monday night's council meeting that despite the passage of city sweeping trucks on Fifth Avenue each weekday the gutters are filled each morning with rubbish by people "who just sweep it there."

It was then that McInnis suggested the matter be swept into the retail merchant committee's lap.

13 Ross Teachers Tenure Granted

All of those approved for tenure have served in the district for over four years, said Supt. Donald D. Leister. Approval was given following evaluation of individual teachers by the board.

Leister reported that $25,000 had been advanced the district by the county for current expenses. The money will be repaid in December when taxes due are collected.

Radio Monitoring Trial Date Set

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Setting a date for the trial of Kenneth G. Fuller, 37, charged with intercepting police radio calls and selling the information to radio stations, was continued yesterday to Nov. 16.

Fuller, former Oakland policeman, is charged with violating the Federal Communications Act.

U.S. Dist. Judge Oliver J. Carter has not yet ruled on a defense motion for dismissal of the charge.

Belvedere Planners

Belvedere planning commissioners have drafted a "rough" resolution on the zoning ordinance applying to single-family residential areas which will be checked by Commissioner K. C. Allison, attorney, before it is submitted to the city council next month, chairman George Goddard said.

Eel River Study Promised Marin

A reassuring letter from the Department of the Interior, promising Eel River studies with Marin County future water needs in mind, has been received by the county supervisors.

Some time ago they asked the federal department to proceed with such work, since its preliminary moves had appeared to be better geared to Marin requirements than corresponding state studies.

The Interior Department, said the letter, is now studying the whole basin in preparation for a report about 1963.

Supervisor William Gnoss, who represents Marin on an Eel River committee, told the board that all the North Coast counties are "swinging toward an Eel River project" and they will unitedly press for a program.

(A Thrice-Weekly Column)

San Rafael's Fairchild Plant Announces New Administrator

New manager of administration at the San Rafael diode plant of Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. is Paul F. Kent, previously personnel manager for the past year and a resident of Terra Linda.

He replaces Jack Yelverton who has joined Signetic Corporation, a new company formed in Sunnyvale for the development and manufacture of complex electronic circuits. Yelverton was a resident of Tiburon and moved to Mountain View this last weekend. His new job carries the same title as with Fairchild—manager of administration.

Signetics Corp. was organized by four scientists formerly with the Fairchild offices in Mountain View and Palo Alto.

IT MUST BE that time of year again. You can always tell —when the Mission Pak Co. comes into downtown San Rafael, opens up a store until after Christmas, then takes down its sign, folds up its displays of glace fruits and fades out of local prominence for another 10 months.

This year the store will be at 802 Fourth Street, where Zirke's Delicatessen used to be —rented just for the months of November and December.

DOUGLAS OIL CO. of Los Angeles, building a new service station at Redhill and Buena Vista Avenues, San Anselmo, has not yet appointed a man to run it, according to Bob Miller, manager of the Santa Clara office.

First Douglas outlet in Marin, it is expected to be completed about Dec. 1. The oil firm has a station in Santa Rosa and one in Petaluma which is celebrating its grand opening this week.

ITEM being manufactured by Amac Plastic Corp. in Sausalito is a group of small boxes in several sizes and colors which John Minton of Creative Arts, 22 El Portal, Sausalito, is window-displaying with great success.

First question asked by customers is: "What are they for?" Says Minton, there are so many possible answers he just pulls one out of mid-air and it fits. Most of the people buy them without really knowing what they are going to do with them — but there must be SOMETHING . . .

INTERESTING POINT about the newly manufactured American-manufactured cars this year is the wide range of sizes which have a spread of more than four feet in their wheelbases. Rambler American starts at 100 inches: the Cadillac 75 tops the list with 149.8 inches.

More than 400 different models are being offered in 35 trade names—one of the broadest selections ever to be available in American automobile history. No one is taking a chance on missing a segment of the market.

MARINDIVIDUALS: Harold C. Smith of Novato, former retail representative in Sacramento for Best Foods Division of Corn Products Sales Co., has been promoted to area manager in San Francisco . . . Fred Santos, San Anselmo representative for Banker Life of Nebraska spent most of last week going to, attending and coming from an advanced seminar of his company in Colorado Springs . . . John W. Seamas of San Rafael has been named local branch manager of Foremost Dairies, Inc. He joined the firm as salesman in 1952; replaces Frank H. McDougall who's been transferred to head the Fortuna branch . . . Mrs. Ellen Adamson, three years with the classified advertising and circulation departments of the I-J, has joined Price Hall Public Relations in San Rafael and will handle production for that firm.

Dixie Teachers Will Go Back To School Friday

Dixie School District pupils will get a holiday Friday while their teachers go back to school for the day in various parts of the Bay Area, Supt. Dennie B. Willis announced today.

"Reed School District will host some 45 of our teachers on all grade levels, kindergarten through eighth," he said.

"Others will visit teachers and classes in the San Rafael school system and the demonstration school at San Francisco State College. One staff member will visit in Palo Alto to observe their program for the gifted child."

Teachers not visiting will work in Dixie planned workshops designed to improve physical education, health education and social studies. The workshops will be directed by Penrod Moss, Dixie curriculum consultant; Dr. Charles Nagel of the county superintendent's office, and Mrs. Jane McCollister and Gerhard Lust, Vallecitos School teachers.

Marin's Tax Rate Is Compared

Marin County with a 1961-62 tax rate of $2.05 compared with $2.12 for 1960-61 is one of 21 California counties with lower basic tax rates this year, S. J. Arnold, general manager of the California Taxpayer's Assn., announced in Los Angeles.

Decreases ranged from 72 cents for Alpine to $0.0004 for Los Angeles, he said. County tax rates are "not always comparable" because some counties include certain specialized school rates and San Francisco's rate (also decreased) includes all city and school functions, he said.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

By Mary Lee Taylor

Pimiento-Cheese Tuna

- 1 can cream of mushroom soup
- ¾ cup PET Evaporated Milk
- 1½ cups grated, process American cheese
- 7-oz. can tuna, drained and broken into pieces
- 2 cups cooked, drained elbow macaroni or broken spaghetti (see note)
- ⅓ cup cut-up pimiento
- 1 Tablespoon grated onion
- ½ cup crumbled potato chips

In a 2-qt. bowl mix all ingredients except potato chips. Pour into greased 1½-qt. baking dish. Sprinkle potato chips over top. Bake near center of 375 oven (high moderate) 20 min., or until bubbly hot. Makes 4 servings.

NOTE: You will need to cook about 1 cup macaroni or broken spaghetti in 4 cups boiling water with ½ teasp. salt.

KAUFMAN'S BEGINS TO TAKE ON NEW LOOK

The interior of Kaufman's, San Anselmo department store at 540 San Anselmo Avenue, is taking on new appearance as expansion of store to span Corte Madera Creek nears completion. This is view in portion of interior where new construction is under way. The 4,700-foot expansion is due for completion in mid-November. Meanwhile, Kaufman's will be among Hub City stores offering special buys during San Anselmo Bargain Days, tomorrow, Friday and Saturday. (Independent-Journal photo)

Seed Service Helps Produce Forest Trees

SHELTON, Wash. (UPI) — Plant geneticists from many countries have travelled hundreds of miles out of their way to see a unique seed orchard at the end of a narrow, dusty road 20 miles southwest of here.

And the man they all want to talk to is Virgil Allen, a native of Washington who does not have a college degree, but is known locally as "Mr. Tree Doctor."

Forty-year-old Allen operates the Dennie Ahl Douglas fir seed orchard for the U. S. Forest Service. His official title is "forestry technician" and he can rattle off technical terms at a rate even the experts find difficult to follow.

The primary purpose of the Dennie Ahl seed orchard, Allen said recently, is to produce a seed source for reforestration of Douglas firs at high elevations.

Douglas firs are the giants that provide most of the lumber produced in the Northwest and their future supply is of great concern to the entire economy of this region.

Allen's experiments, however, have resulted in findings that may effect future tree plantings throughout the country. His scientific testing involves fertilization techniques, cone insect control and artificial pollination.

Even a quick glance at grafted trees in the seed orchard is enough for a layman to spot obvious results of Allen's work. Douglas firs inside the fenced orchard are darker in color than native firs outside the 35-acre enclosure.

Their color isn't the signifi- cant difference though. It's the high seed-producing quality of the firs that makes them valuable to the U. S. Forest Service.

Seeds from the Dennie Ahl orchard are the same hardy type produced by quality "parent" trees growing in a wild state at the 2,000 to 3,000-foot level in Washington. They're the type that are difficult to collect from natural production because the parent trees grow in rugged terrain and bear fertile seeds only every seven to 10 years.

Seedlings reared from seed stock at the Dennie Ahl orchard will be transplanted to cut-over land in the Olympic and Snoqualmie National Forests of Washington.

The first "scions"—or tiny clippings—from select Douglas firs growing at high elevations were grated onto naturally stocked firs in the seed orchard in 1958. And sometime this fall the first seedlings produced at Dennie Ahl will be planted to remove the logging scars at a high-elevation site in one of the two national forests.

Lloyd Gillmor — supervisor of Olympic National Forest— said that in the future there will be approximately 8,000 trees in the orchard, each producing about 10,000 seeds a year.

The orchard will be the main source for high-elevation Douglas fir seeds in the Northwest.

Honor System For Soviet Bus Riders

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Bus riders are on the honor system in Russia, according to a University of Rochester scientist who returned recently from a scientific convention in Moscow.

Dr. Elmer Stotz says Moscow bus riders pick up a ticket when they board the bus and deposit money in a toll box when they get off. And no one watches them to make sure they drop the money in.

Two Biologists Gathering Fish

HONOLULU (AP) — Two biologists from the Hawaii Fish and Game Division will spend six weeks on Moorea in the Society Islands collecting fish for introduction to Hawaiian waters.

Biologists Harry Kami and Isaac Ikehara said they plan to take 6,000 fish, primarily shallow water snappers and groupers not found in Hawaii. The fish, to be placed in large tanks, will be taken to Honolulu by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Kani said the snappers and groupers should improve sports fishing and commercial catches in Hawaii. "Wherever they are found in the islands of the central and western Pacific," he said, "They seem to attract large numbers of game and commercial fish."

Has This Law Been Broken As Of Late?

KITCHENER, Ont. (AP)—Kitchener residents are questioning the need for two ancient laws recently unearthed. One prohibits the shooting of wolves within the village limits.

The other forbids double parking of Conestoga wagons.

This Ship Apparently Was Jinxed

CORONADO (UPI)—A retired undertaker who loves the sea unwittingly inherited a headache when he foreclosed a mortgage on a shipyard a year ago—a troublesome ship with an infamous history came along with it.

Foster Bryant, after taking over the shipyard, began hearing many salty yarns concerning the history of the ship, The Marico. Many of the stories came from waterfront characters in dockside bars.

Bryant admits he enjoys sea stories, true or not, and hasn't done much to determine if they are based on fact, since that would involve extensive researching of maritime records.

The elderly, greying man, who looks like a seafarer rather than a former mortician, happily recounts stories of how the Marico was used to smuggle Chinese to San Francisco from Mexico.

He also retells stories of how the ship was used for smuggling, especially during the prohibition era and a more recent tale about its use in training Cuban rebels in San Diego Bay.

Legal suits to try to get the man who had left the ship at the pier to remove the hulk failed. The court ruled that he couldn't have had prior knowledge it would sink.

The career of the problem ship seems to be at an end. All that remains is to find it a final resting place—somewhere out of the path of seagoing traffic.

Bryant, who supervised the final rites for many people, finds arrangements much more expensive for ships. Estimates have run about $6,500 to remove the ship for burial at sea.

Building In Germany Elevator, Restaurant

FRANKFURT (UPI) — The Frankfurt skyline boasts a new attraction which is remarkable for three reasons.

Besides being the highest building with the widest circumference, the new restaurant and silo of a Frankfurt brewery is the highest grain elevator in the world and also is one of the highest restaurants of Germany, all at the same time.

The huge elevator reaches 432 feet into the air. On the top is a revolving restaurant which offers the double feature of choice hospitality and a splendid panorama of the Hession countryside.

When there is clear visibility, the guests, comfortably perched in easy chairs, see the landscape of 40 miles slowly go by. Once every hour, or switched to another gear, even twice in the hour, the whole horizon slides by, offering a view over the Taunus mountains, the Rhein-Main valley, the Odenwald and Spessart Mountains as well as the Westerwald mountain range. The sprawling town of Frankfurt is spread at the feet of the towering restaurant like a toy city with moving streetcars and automobiles.

Anchored on the solid rock of the Sachsenhaeuserberg, a hilltop in a Frankfurt suburb, more than five feet thick basement walls reach deep into the ground. Former brewery caves underneath the structure were filled with concrete. Up to 255 feet the tower's rectangular part of the grain elevator reaches to the sky. It offers room for 14,000 tons of barley, enough to brew more than 11 million gallons of beer. The huge silo ranks among the 10 biggest breweries in Germany.

The brewery (Henninger) had the splendid idea of combining the silo with facilities to attract the public. Therefore the basement houses a beer inn in the style of the Middle Ages. On top of the elevator a roof-garden was installed where amidst carefully cultivated lawns and flower beds and besides a fountain with goldfish, couples can dance on a 16 by 16 feet dancing platform. In bad weather the roof-garden can be covered within minutes by huge tents and heated with infra-red radiators.

Towering over the whole building is the revolving restaurant seating 165 guests at a time. Two electro-motors move the restaurant with its huge glass walls that offer unrestricted view over the whole horizon.

Two special express lifts with a speed of 14 feet per second bring the guests up and down. It took more than two years and 200 workers to build the tower and the restaurant. More than 18,000 square feet of concrete and 500 tons of steel were used in the construction.

Cattle Rustling's On Wheels, But Branding Remains Same

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Mechanization has made cattle rustling a hit-and-run crime on a faster scale, but it hasn't changed the main way a rancher marks his cattle as his own.

Ernest Duke of Fort Worth, director of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, said the cattle rustler's pony has given way to trucks. And the herd-'em-to-safety method of the past has yielded to a method harder to trace — rush-'em-to-market.

"Transportation has been a real boon to thieves," Duke said. "They can steal cattle after dark and be far away by daylight. They can load the cattle into fast transports and have them sold at market before long."

Texas law enforcement officers still have a lot of trouble with cattle thieves, Duke said. The end of the open range did not bring an end to rustling.

But cattle branding has remained basically the same over the years.

"Nothing has replaced the hot iron yet," Duke said. "It remains the same thing as in the old days. There are some acids and other chemical brands, but they don't work as well."

To match the rustlers' increasing mobility, enforcement officers and cattlemen have a few new tricks of their own.

One of their major weapons is the cattlemen's association, which was founded to fight rustling and has remained, with additional functions, to aid ranchers.

The association was founded in 1877, when 40 cattlemen gathered under a giant oak tree near Graham, Tex. Before long, the membership had spread throughout the world.

The present name of the organization is a misnomer, Duke pointed out. The members range through 30 states, Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rico and Australia.

Association brand inspectors check cattle auctions for sales, and keep records of the vehicles bringing the cattle to market. In this way, they can often spot rustled cattle before they are sold.

Duke estimated that $30 million worth of strayed and stolen cattle have been restored to rightful owners by the association during the past 20 years.

Texas has 235,000 cattle brands registered with the association, he said. They are recorded on a county-by-county basis, so that no two men in the same county can have the same brand. Some duplications do occur across county lines.

Despite the speedup in rustling methods, one aspect of speed has hurt the cattle thieves, Duke said.

"There's not so much trouble nowadays with a running brand—that is, changing one brand to another design," he said. "When you run a brand you have to hide the cattle somewhere for a few days to let the brand heal, or it can be detected."

"In the old days, a rustler could run the cattle off somewhere and wait for the new brand to set. But now, he does not have time for that," Duke said.

These Cattle Put Best Hoofs Forward

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Joseph Adamson, a shoe polish salesman, was surprised to discover that some of his best customers don't even wear shoes.

He reports attending a county fair in Pennsylvania where the prize cattle were given "hoof shines" with his firm's liquid shoe polish before entering the show ring.

Mailman Has Big Repertoire

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — When mailman Russell DiLeo whistles while he works, the tunes that come out depend on the neighborhood he is in.

On an exclusive street, says DiLeo: "I give 'em opera and light classics."

He also whistles Irish jigs and Italian tarantellas, depending on the name on the mailbox.

New Japanese Traffic Laws Bring Mixup

TOKYO (UPI) — Japan recently put into effect new nationwide traffic laws. The result: Mass confusion.

Drivers were confused, pedestrians were confused and traffic cops, the majority of whom do not know how to drive, also were confused.

The new laws did not get off to an auspicious start. No wonder. The laws were made up, in some instances, of a brand of double talk which hardly anyone could interpret or understand.

Take this gem:

"A one-eyed person can qualify to drive a motorbike with a cylinder displacement of less than 50 c.c. and light motor vehicles with a speed of less than 15 kilometers (9.3 miles) if he has an eyesight of more than .5 and visual field of more than 150 degrees."

And be careful if you want to hold a parade, particularly if a giraffe is included. Says the law:

"A parade of more than 100 members of the self-defense forces and processions of more than 100 persons bearing flags, placards and banners of a group of persons accompanied by such large sized animals as giraffes and elephants must keep to the right side of the right half of the road except when directed otherwise by traffic officers."

Japan has a serious traffic problem. Plagued with an insufficient highway system, it has seen the number of automobiles increase from 188,000 in 1947 to the current more than 3 million. They are increasing at the rate of 40,000 monthly. Some 318,093 accidents from January through September last year killed 8,347 persons and injured 206,965.

But critics have complained the government has not done all it should to ease the situation.

Language of the new laws already has come under fire, particularly road signs which are scheduled to be put up shortly. (In Japan, road signs carry both Japanese ideographs and English translations.) Some read:

"May parking."
"May stopping."
"May parking and stopping."
"Section for sound of horn."

The Mainichi Daily News said editorially such signs would make Japan appear ridiculous in the eyes of visitors.

It said it asked the police agency about the "strange signs" and was told that the wording already had been decided "by law" and that they could not make any immediate changes.

"Frequently," Mainichi said, "this problem becomes a matter of face. The one responsible will vehemently insist on having the error continue rather than be called on the carpet by his superior. . ."

Columnist John Robb in the Yomiuri newspaper also criticized what he called "Japlish."

"Well," he said, "they've finally done it. They've legalized Japlish."

Disney Films Available To Deaf Children

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dumbo, Long John Silver and the "Littlest Outlaw" have entered the world of the deaf via a special film program administered by the federal government.

These and other Walt Disney stars are trailblazers in the Captioned Films for the Deaf Program of the U.S. Office of Education.

Five Disney studio products —"Dumbo," "Treasure Island," "The Littlest Outlaw," "White Wilderness" and "Living Desert were the first films made available under the program. The service was established under the National Defense Education Act.

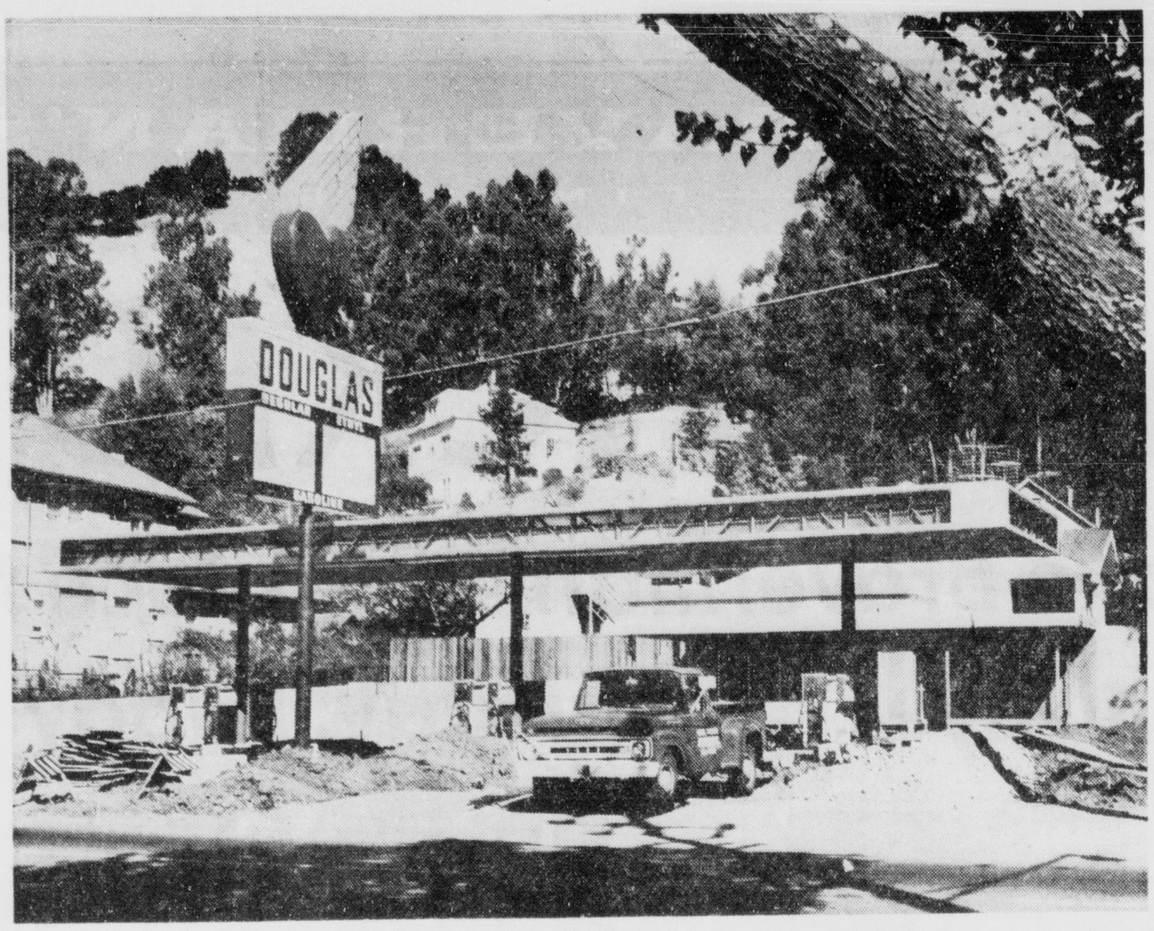
An advisory committee on the new educational media was established under the 1958 act to award contracts and grants for the research.

Committee members include Lawrence G. Derthick, U.S. commissioner of education, as chairman; Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta Constitution; Glenn T. Seaborg, University of California chancellor; plus officials of broadcasting corporations, public school systems, private industry, government agencies and state universities.

In addition to contracts for large-scale research, a "small grants" program also has been set up. Designed to encourage promising but inexperienced researchers, this program provides a maximum grant of $2,500 for limited studies, "including predoctoral research."

Among the research areas are studies into the use of video tapes, film strips, recordings, and radio and television scripts at elementary, secondary and university levels.



NEW OIL COMPANY FOR MARIN

This modern, metal-and-glass service station at Redhill and Buena Vista Avenues in San Anselmo will be the first Marin County outlet for Douglas Oil Co. of Los Angeles. The big red "valentine" heart is a Douglas trademark. R. J. Logan Co. of Hayward is building the station, with completion scheduled about Dec. 1. (Independent-Journal photo)

Free Plane Rides Keep Pilots Busy

CAPE CORAL, Fla. (UPI) — This new community on the Calcosahatchee River operates what is probably the biggest free plane ride business in the world.

Checking his flight log recently, Pilot Joe Gibson found he had made 2,966 flights in four months, each time with three passengers and each time without punching a ticket or collecting a fare.

The 10-minute flights are designed to give prospective purchasers of lots in a 16,000-acre waterfront development here a bird's eye view of the area.

Gibson and four fellow pilots estimate they will give rides to 103,000 persons here this year.

The Shots Hit Wrong Target

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—William J. Ryan, 20, of Phoenix, and two buddies went to the desert to do a little target shooting.

Ryan slipped on a rock. His rifle went off, the bullet striking Patrick M. Bradley, 19, in the groin. Ryan and David Miller, 19, put Bradley in the car and drove him to the hospital.

Take The Bus

MONTPELIER, Ind. (AP)—This town was without taxi service for nearly four days while its only cab driver, Chester Brenner, sat out a $18.75 traffic fine in jail at $5 a day. Brenner explained he probably couldn't make that much working.

Third Of Nation May Be Suffering From One Of 18 'Main Illnesses'

NEW YORK (UPI)—More than a third of the nation may be suffering from one of 18 "main illnesses and handicapping conditions," according to estimates compiled by the National Health Education Committee, Inc.

The estimates added up to 62,826,225 ailing or handicapped persons, or about one in every 2.86 Americans. No estimate was given of the extend of duplication through persons suffering from more than one of the listed disabilities.

At the top of the list was mental disorder "in some degree" which is estimated to affect 17 million—one in 10—Americans on the basis of a 1956 study in Baltimore. At the bottom was infantile paralysis with 8,425 cases reported in 1959, or one in 2,142 persons.

The figures were contained in a thick volume of "Facts on the Major Killing and Crippling Diseases in the United States Today," published by the committee to promote increased appropriations and voluntary gifts for medical research.

Hearing impairments — Six million, or one in 30 persons—a U.S. National Health Survey 1958-59.

Mentally retarded—5.4 million, or one in 36 persons—from National Assn. for Retarded Children, Inc.

Alcoholics—Four million, or one in 45 persons—from the National Assn. for Mental Health.

Diabetes mellitus, epilepsy and Parkinson's disease — 1.5 million or one in 120 persons each—the diabetes from a U.S. National Health Survey 1957-59, the other two from the National Institute of Neurological Diseases and Blindness.

Cancer—785,000 cases under treatment in 1961, or one in 230 persons—from the American Cancer Society, Inc.

Multiple sclerosis and similar diseases—500,000 or one in 356 persons — estimated by National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Inc.

Blindness — 345,000 legally blind, or one in 521 persons—estimated by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness. (1.5 million estimated blind in one eye were not included in the totals.)

Muscular dystrophy—200,000 or one in 900 persons—from Muscular Dystrophy Assn. of America, Inc.

Some Happy News For Hotel Clerks

MEMPHIS (AP) — Guests in hotels aren't pilfering towels and soap like they used to, Shelby Evans of Memphis told a regional convention of hotel room clerks here.

"Perhaps better economic conditions prevent them from taking these small items," was the theory advanced by U. G. Fayard of New Orleans.
